AZAM KHAN, WIFE, SON GET 7 YRS IN JAIL

Samajwadi Party leader Azam Khan, his wife Tazeen Fatima, and son Abdullah Azam were sent to jail on Wednesday after a court here convicted them in a 2019 fake birth certificate case and awarded a seven-year term. The FIR in the case was lodged by BJP MLA Akash Saxena at the Ganj police station in Rampur on January 3, 2019. It was alleged that Khan and his wife helped their son obtain two fake birth certificates: one from Lucknow and another from Rampur.

Okay to feel rage but don't be consumed by it, Biden tells Bibi; Modi raps hospital attack

YESHI SELI & AGENCIES
@ New Delhi / Gaza / Tel Aviv

THE explosion at a Gaza hospital on Tuesday was not done by Israel but by its foes, US President Joe Biden said on Wednesday. "I was deeply saddened and outraged by the explosion of the hospital in Gaza yesterday, and based on what I've seen, it appears as though it was done by the other team, not you," Biden told Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu during a meeting in Tel Aviv.

While firmly backing Israel in its war on Hamas, Biden also shared his concerns about the rising civilian casualties. He said Israel can draw lessons from the US campaigns after the 9/11 terror attacks. "Justice must be done. But I caution this: While you feel that rage, don't be consumed by it. After 9/11, we were enraged... While we sought justice and got justice, we also made mistakes," the US president added.

After the explosion at the Gaza hospital on Tuesday, Hamas officials had claimed at least 500 people died and blamed it on an Israeli air strikes. Israel Defence Forces, however, (IDF) denied the claim and said their analysis showed the hospital was hit by a misfired rocket launched by the Palestinian Islamic Jihad, the second largest militant group in Gaza after Hamas. For its part, the Islamic Jihad denied any role in the attack, saying it wasn't operating from there.

Israel also released drone footage of the scene of the explosion to show that there was no impact crater from any missile or bomb. An Israeli air strike would have created a huge crater, it explained.

While Hamas and Israel are blaming each other for the hospital attack, world leaders expressed horror over the turn of events. Expressing anguish over the ongoing conflict and civilian casualties, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said he was deeply shocked at the tragic loss of lives in the hosptial blast. "Our heartfelt condolences to the families of the victims, and prayers for speedy recovery of those injured. Civilian casualties in the ongoing conflict are a matter of serious and continuing concern. Those involved should be held responsible," he said in a post on X.

Humanitarian aid to Gaza after Biden push

Netanyahu's office on Wednesday said Israel will allow Egypt to deliver humanitarian aid to Gaza. The decision was approved in light of a request from Biden, it said, adding that it 'will not thwart' deliveries of food, water and medicine, as long as the supplies do not reach Hamas. Biden also announced $100 mn humanitarian aid in the war-torn Gaza and the West Bank

Jordan cancels peace summit after blast

Biden was supposed to travel from Israel to Jordan for a peace summit with the leaders of Jordan, Egypt and the Palestinian Authority. However, Jordan late on Tuesday night cancelled the summit that was to be held in Amman, over the hospital attack

Man jumps off 4th floor B'luru cafe to escape blaze, in critical condition

RISHITA KHANNA @ Bengaluru

A 29-year-old cook suffered serious injuries when he jumped off Mudpipe Cafe, which is on the fourth floor of KDP Building at Tavarekere Junction on Hosur Road opposite Forum Mall, after a major fire broke out in one of the two kitchens there on Wednesday.

The cafe had a hookah bar which was shut last month following the state government's ban on such bars.

There were no customers at the cafe when the fire broke out around 11.45 am due to a leak in one of the commercial LPG cylinders stored in the kitchen to prepare meals for the staffers.

Soon, three cylinders exploded and the fire spread to other parts of the cafe. As the fire engulfed the top floor of the building opposite Prestige Acropolis, a panic-stricken Prem Singh Saud from Nepal, a cook at the main kitchen of the cafe, jumped off the fourth floor to save his life. Saud was rushed to KG Hospital in Tilak Nagar by the police and passers-by. He was later shifted to Apollo Hospital in Jayanagar, where he is being treated in the intensive care unit. He is stated to be in a critical condition.

An eyewitness, who works as a cook at a paying guest accommodation in the locality, said the explosions were intense. Within a few seconds, three cylinders exploded. One of the cylinders fell a few feet away from the road. But fortunately, there were no pedestrians or vehicles at that time.

Some policemen on duty on Hosur Road swung into action and rescued four persons who were in the gym on the second floor of the building. Fire force personnel, who rushed to the building, evacuated people from the floors below. Eight fire tenders were pressed into service and the blaze was put out by 2pm.

Five two-wheelers parked on the building premises were destroyed as burning material fell on them. A brand new car waiting to be delivered to a customer at 3 pm was partially damaged as charred metal and glass pieces fell on it from the top floor.

Unable to find an escape route, Prem Singh Saud jumps from the fourth floor

'THERE IS FIRE EVERYWHERE, NOWHERE TO ESCAPE'

NAMRATA SINDWANI @ Bengaluru

SECONDS before Prem Singh Saud jumped off the fourth floor of the building to save himself, he had called his friend and colleague, and said, "There is fire everywhere... nowhere to escape."

Panic-stricken, the first thing that came to his mind was to jump off the building that was under fire to save himself, not realising the consequences.

Saud, 29, is a cook of Mudpipe Cafe at Koramangala, which was destroyed in a blaze due to gas leak and cylinder blast. He joined the cafe seven years ago.

JAISON WILSON @ New Delhi

FIFTEEN years after television journalist Soumya Vishwanathan was shot dead in the national capital, a Delhi court on Wednesday convicted four for her murder. The court said the prosecution has duly proved "beyond all reasonable doubt" that the quartet committed the crime with intention to rob the deceased.

Additional Sessions Judge Ravindra Kumar Pandey at Saket Court held that Ravi Kapoor, Amit Shukla, Ajay Kumar and Baljeet Malik as guilty. The fifth accused, Ajay Sethi, was convicted for receiving stolen property.

Soumya was shot dead on September 30, 2008, while she was returning home from work in her car around 3.30 am. Police had claimed that the motive behind the killing was robbery.

For long the police could not crack her case. The breakthrough came after the arrest of Ravi and Amit for their involvement in another case. It led to solving Soumya's murder. The court would pronounce the quantum of the sentence on October 26. Soumya's mother said she wants life term for convicts.

DEEPAVALI DECISION?

State to review prohibiting cracker bursting, says Dr G

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE state government will review whether bursting of crackers should be allowed in Bengaluru this Deepavali, said Home Minister Dr G Parameshwara on Wednesday.

Speaking to reporters after inspecting the Attibele cracker shop where a recent firecracker mishap had taken place, Parameshwara said bursting of crackers is prohibited in Delhi during Deepavali.

"Every year, we are witnessing incidents such as deaths and damage to eyes during Deepavali. We have to think whether cracker bursting should be allowed in the state. We will review whether we can prohibit cracker bursting during Deepavali, at least in Bengaluru. We may have to introduce new laws for it. The issue will be taken up with the chief minister," he said.

Further, he said the Attibele incident was a lesson and the state government has already taken steps to avert such incidents in future. "We will also introduce new laws and bring an amendment to existing laws if required," he added.

Wheat MSP up by ₹150; 4.4% rise in grain output

JITENDRA CHOUBEY @ New Delhi

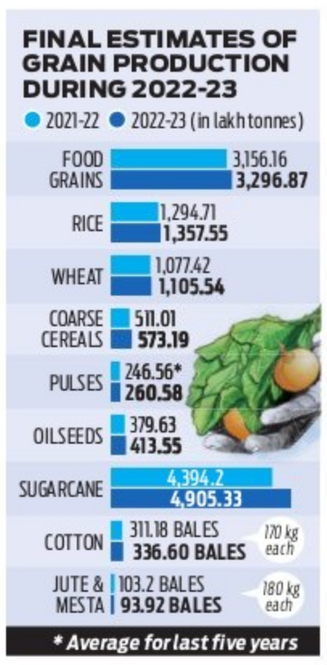
ON a day the Centre increased the minimum support price (MSP) for wheat by 7% — the highest in nine years — official data showed a 4.4% jump in food production for the last fiscal, as per final estimates.

The absolute increase in wheat MSP is ₹150 — from ₹2,125 for 2023-24 to ₹2,275 per quintal for 2024-25. The highest increase in MSP was for lentil (masur) at ₹425 per quintal followed by rapeseed and mustard at ₹200 and safflower at ₹150 (see table). The hike in MSP was recommended by the Commission for Agricultural Costs and Prices (CACP). The government claimed the MSP figures are in line with the principle of at least 1.5 times the weighted average cost of production.

But the fact is that the government tweaked the formula to suit its narrative of 1.5 times from the cost of production as recommended by the M S Swaminathan Commission.

CACP has three categories to calculate the cost of production: A2, A2+FL and C2. A2 represents actual cost of farming including seeds, fertilisers and hired labour. A2+FL includes family workers in addition to A2. And C2 represents the cost of land rentals or interest on invested capital in addition to A2+FL.

The Swaminathan Commission had recommended C2+50% but the government is providing A2+50%.



FINAL ESTIMATES OF GRAIN PRODUCTION DURING 2022-23
2021-22
2022-23 (in lakh tonnes)
FOOD GRAINS 3,156.16 3,296.87
RICE 1,294.71 1,357.55
WHEAT 1,077.42 1,105.54
COARSE CEREALS 511.01 573.19
PULSES 246.56* 260.58
OILSEEDS 379.63 413.55
SUGARCANE 4,394.2 4,905.33
COTTON 311.18 BALES 336.60 BALES 170 kg each
JUTE & MESTA 103.2 BALES 93.92 BALES 180 kg each
* Average for last five years

As for food production in FY23, it was 140.71 lakh tonnes (LT) higher than 2021-22. Also, the figure is higher than the previous five years' average production. Total food grain production in FY23 is estimated at a record 3,296.87 LT. The 2022-23 production is higher by 308.69 lakh tonnes than the previous five years' (2017-18 to 2021-22) average production.

Major contributions in India's granary come from rice and wheat, which also registered a sharp increase despite inclement weather last year.

ODI WORLD CUP

Dutch touch: Uber eats, county over country to pay bills

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN & FIROZ MIRZA @ Chennai

PAUL van Meekeren is a practical man. County cricket to Uber Eats and Delveroo, he turned to everything that could keep his stomach full and heart yearning. When he was faced with the often impossible decision that modern cricketers are forced to take, he plumped for the logical choice. As Netherlands departed to Zimbabwe to play the ODI World Cup qualifiers in June-July, the pacer, like several other compatriots, turned up for a county side in England (Gloucestershire in his case).

"That is always hard to choose," he tells this daily. "Emotionally, you want to play for your country but I took the decision a couple of years ago to look at this from a practical view. County cricket pays my bills, the country doesn't. That's life." Unfortunately, the 'life' the 30-year-old describes is all too familiar for most cricketers who play the game outside the elite few countries.

On Tuesday night, Van Meekeren was one of 11 men who forwarded their names to Netherlands' relatively tiny but developing cricketing folklore. His figures of 2/40 over nine tight overs (sent down 33 dots, third best on the night) helped the Oranje army to a 39-run win over South Africa.

Paul van Meekeren celebrates with captain Scott Edwards on Tuesday | AFP

Like many of the players who operate outside the elite bubble, Van Meekeren, who was also part of their famous win over the same opponents in last year's T20 World Cup, too has had to odd jobs to keep the money coming in. In the latter part of 2020, he turned to a few apps to ensure he had some sustenance. "At that time, I had just lost my contract with Somerset. I played club cricket but that means no income in the winter. So, I had no income when Covid came. I had to earn money so I took this job with Uber Eats and Deliveroo. It sounds romantic but it was very well thought choice. With this, I could decide on my working times myself and be available whenever a cricket opportunity would turn up."

Considered as a vital cog for Netherlands (he's one of the very few players born and raised in the country), he has always strived to make those opportunities count. Like the one on Tuesday night when he played his part in taking down a team ranked 11 places higher than them.

Tech helps detect 10k mosquito-breeding spots

Surveillance dashboard and PRISM-H app launched in 225 wards last month, 2 lakh households surveyed

NAMRATA SINDWANI @ Bengaluru

THE disease surveillance dashboard for dengue and the PRISM-H (Platform for Integrated Surveillance and Management of Health) app have helped in identifying 10,000 mosquito-breeding spots and surveying two lakh households in the city within a month of launch.

Dr Bhaskar Rajkumar, Programme Director, AI and Technology Park (ARTPARK), Indian Institute of Science (IISC), said that the app was launched in 225 wards of the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) in September after a successful pilot initiative performed to test the functionality of PRISM-H. Keeping in mind the easy app interface, accredited social health activists (ASHA) in Bengaluru have adopted it much faster.

The activists and other field workers identified 10,000 mosquito-breeding spots and surveyed two lakh households within a month of the app launch. With the integration of technology, health department officials are able to identify the geo-location of all mosquito-breeding spots and houses with positive dengue cases with photographic evidence. Activities such as clearance of breeding spots or fumigation are better monitored with collated data readily available to the officials.

Dr AS Balasundar, Chief Health Officer, BBMP, said they had issues with collating the data in the past. Despite surveys being done, they were not efficiently documented. With the help of this disease surveillance system, they have managed to properly document the number of dengue cases and the breeding spots. With regard to dengue, which saw a spike during August-September, with close to 4,000 cases reported, Bengaluru is now witnessing a downward trend. The city reported around 400 cases in the last week of September and close to 500 cases so far this month. The incidence is expected to reduce further within 20 days, he added.

The dashboard was launched in association with BBMP and state health department to provide a map of outbreaks at the district and sub-district level across Karnataka.

FIR against KAS officers for mutating, selling forest land

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru:

FOR the first time in Bengaluru, forest department officials filed an FIR against two senior KAS officers for mutating forest land.

The forest officials filed an FIR against Assistant Commissioner (AC) MG Shivanna and Tahsildar Ajit Kumar Rai on October 17. They were booked for mutating 17.34 acres of forest land as revenue land worth over Rs 500 crore, in Kothanur village, Yelahanka, Bengaluru North.

It may be noted that in June 2023, Lokayukta police had raided and arrested Rai in a disproportionate assets case. The Lokayukta had unearthed documents on 100 acres of land, SUVs worth Rs 2.5 crore and properties worth over Rs 2 crore.

On October 14, Shivanna was booked by Halasuru Gate police for illegal transfer of 14.19 acres of government land in Uttarahalli, Bengaluru South. He was booked by Revenue Minister Krishna Byre Gowda.

"We were working on this case for very long. These two officials were found to be directly mutating forest land in Bharathi Nagar. An FIR was registered under the Forest Conservation Act 1963, and Karnataka Forest Act. They have also violated a Supreme Court order which says that no forest land can be granted for non-forestry purposes without concurrence from the apex court," a senior forest official told The New Indian Express.

As per forest department records in 1984, land on survey numbers 47 and 48, measuring 17.34 acres and 22.4 acres respectively, was given to the forest department by the then Deputy Commissioner, since it fell within 18km of the green zone.

The official said that in January 2023, on Rai's appeal, Shivanna mutated 17.34 acres to the revenue department through a false court hearing.

Forest officials were not called for the hearing, and there was a unanimous declaration. Alert locals tipped off staffers on the ground about the mutation, and land being sold.

"Though there are cases of false conversion in other parts of Karnataka, and also instances of forest staffers being attacked, an FIR is being registered against serving KAS officers in Bengaluru for the first time. We are also working on filing cases and approaching courts to secure 22.4 acres of land, which was encroached through illegal grants," the official said.

Forest, Environment and Ecology Minister Eshwar Khandre had also informed the chief minister of the encroachment and case.

Orders were issued to investigate the case and take stern action, following which an FIR was filed.

Students fined for somersaulting in Metro

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

IN a freak incident on board the last Metro train on the Green Line on Tuesday, three college students who were repeatedly performing acrobatic feats by clinging on to the grab handles were caught by Metro staffers. They were fined Rs 500 in total for causing nuisance inside a Metro train and for damaging its property.

The three are pursuing second year graduation at a private university, a source said.

According to a BMRCL source, the incident occurred at 11.15 pm on October 17. "The trio had boarded the Metro train at Dasarahalli and were on the way to Yelachenahalli. After it crossed JP Nagar station and was on its way to Yelachenahalli, they started somersaulting inside the moving train. They held on to the handle bars above when engaging in such feats," he said.

A video grab of the students performing acrobatic feats in a Metro train

A Metro staffer who was travelling inside captured their behaviour on his mobile. "He alerted the security officer at Yelachenahalli station. Before the train could reach the station, an assistant security officer and homeguard were sent to the platform." A 11-second video clip of the incident shows two of the boys challenging each other to try the somersault inside the train.

The students were caught as soon as they alighted at the station. Going by their attire and the timing, it appears that they were returning after attending a Navarathri programme somewhere. "They were handed a penalty receipt of Rs 500. Only one penalty was levied for the trio," he added.

"This is a very rare incident. We have received a couple of videos in the past about irresponsible behaviour inside trains. However, the clips are usually undated and it is difficult to catch hold of those who engage in such activities," said a source.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

19th October: Just to return to one of my regular themes, is astrology a science? The answer is yes and no! Strictly speaking it is, yet not in the terms set by modern, western science, because it can't be put in a laboratory, weighed, measured and dissected. That's why many of astrology's most prominent advocates are poets and artists who recognise its truths - and its usefulness in our lives.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
If it's romance you're interested in, secrecy and discretion are of the essence. Also, expensive outings are guaranteed to impress. This is no time to count the cost or restrict your pleasure. After all, your stars won't be so enjoyable - for another three months.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Partners may be in an obstreperous mood this morning, but at least you can be thankful that deep-seated questions are coming into the open and awkward issues can now be aired. Nobody can persuade you to do anything against your will, so stick up for yourself.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
The trouble with Geminians, their critics say, is that they change their minds as often as their socks. Please bear in mind that you are about to do a complete U-turn in one important area, which may be all very confusing for friends and associates.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Cancerians have a right to change their minds. You see, your ideas are often formed by feelings rather than facts and, now that someone seems to have a hot-line to your heart, this particular person is likely to affect your attitudes and deeply-held opinions.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
You've eked out your resources pretty well so far, but now it looks as if you can relax and splash out a little. Helpful lunar aspects suggest that charity begins at home and that those who deserve your generosity most are intimate family members. Be helpful!

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Onwards and upwards is a good slogan for you to bear in mind at a time like this, especially if your morale has slipped a little. Your personal success, you see, now depends on maintaining an optimistic and confident outlook; hope springs eternal, as they say.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Astrology deals with the interface between your psyche and your environment, if that doesn't sound too incredibly pompous. The very simple result is that a change of attitude may now be more important than improvements in your circumstances. More money would help, but it's only part of the answer.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You've got the advantage today, thanks to the Moon's generous support. When someone you think you know well changes arrangements, forgets promises and, perhaps, breaks a trust, you may be inclined to write them off. For your own sake, please be tolerant of such all-too-human behaviour.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
The best way you can use today's planetary energies is to be sympathetic and discreet. You must put other people's interests first and do whatever you can to help. There will be every opportunity to combine a high moral attitude with fun and pleasure.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
New friends, associates and colleagues should encourage you to stop dwelling on the past and instead get on and face the future. The problem is that, for as long as there is still a little turbulence in the celestial spheres, it's difficult to see your way forward.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
At last there should be a thaw on the way in a partnership which has been decidedly chilly. As soon as personal relationships have eased, you'll be able to tackle new questions with an open mind and a willing heart. If you're looking for good luck the question is, how much good fortune can you take? That's not as silly as it sounds!

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Personally, and emotionally, the overall picture may appear challenging, but there is no reason why it should also be upsetting. You have gained so much social confidence lately that there is little that can throw you off balance. At least, not yet!

BLAST, SMOKE & GAS CYLINDER SHARDS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

FOLLOWING the massive fire accident on Hosur Road in SG Palya police limits on Wednesday, eyewitnesses and staff from other establishments in the ill-fated complex and nearby shops recalled the afternoon of panic.

Zakir S, who works at a bakery in Shivajinagar, and was passing by, said, "I was walking from Tavarekere and as I approached Hosur Road, some material fell at the rear of the car showroom building. It was a piece of a gas cylinder. There was panic and traffic was slow. I realized it was due to a fire and I froze for the moment," said Ali. A civil defence staffer present at the venue after the fire broke out, said the cylinder was ripped apart and flattened due to the explosion.

Rama Dass, a mobile phone accessories seller on the footpath opposite, said he stays just half-a-km from the fire site. On hearing the explosion, he rushed towards the spot and noticed thick black smoke emanating from the top of the building, and the entire stretch of Hosur Road in a traffic snarl.

Krishna Kumar, a staffer at a branded car showroom on the ground floor, lost his scooter in the fire tragedy. "I came to work from Nagarbhavi and parked my scooter at the building premises. Due to the fire on the top floor, melted plastic and glass fell on the scooters parked there including mine. Five scooters were already destroyed. A car that was due for delivery at 3pm also was damaged."

A fitness enthusiast who had come to the fitness centre on the third floor of the building atop which the fire raged, said he had taken a nap after a workout session and woke up due to heavy smoke and heat. As the fire was put off on time, there was no damage to the fitness centre or the people inside.

A PROBE is on to know whether the owner of KDP Building, Karan Jain, has licence to run the cafe. An FIR has been registered at SG Palya police station under IPC Section 286 (negligence concerning explosive substances), 338 (causing grievous hurt), and 427 (mischief causing damage) in connection with the blaze.

Raman Gupta, Additional Commissioner of Police (East), said that a special team will be formed to conduct a detailed investigation. The four-storeyed building has a car showroom on the ground and first floors, a fitness centre on the second floor, a leadership training institute on the third floor, and the top floor houses Mudpipe Cafe.

Fire safety should be part of 'Brand B'luru: Beyond Carlton

MOHAMMED YACOOB
@ Bengaluru

FOLLOWING the fire tragedy at Mudpipe cafe in SG Palya, Beyond Carlton (BC), an NGO, said much before the recent fire tragedies in the city, they had recommended to the Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar to include fire safety measures as a part of his ambitious 'Brand Bengaluru' project.

Uday Vijayan, Managing Trustee of BC, which was formed after the fire accident at Carlton Towers claimed the lives of nine people, said, "A year and a half after the incident in 2011, a legislation came into effect following a Public Interest Litigation by Beyond Carlton that all high rise buildings must be inspected regularly. High rise buildings must have all the aspects of fire safety like a setback area for fire tenders to move in during emergencies, fire extinguishers and others requirements."

"In this restaurant incident, only an investigation will reveal what must have caused the fire. To avoid huge tragedies, periodical inspection by agencies is a must. There should be an interaction with high-rise building owners about fire safety. We have given our recommendation to the government to include it in 'Brand Bengaluru' as it is vital for the public," said Vijayan.

He also asked for an audit of all such high-rise buildings, hotels and restaurants, where inflammable items like gas and other chemicals are stored. Authorities must check what safety measures are being followed, he said and and hoped that BC's suggestions will be taken into consideration.

'No option left but to jump'

SAUD and his colleague were preparing meals for their staffers. "The cafe has two kitchens. One is used for preparing food for guests and the other for staffers. Minutes before the blaze, the other cook noticed that one of the stoves had caught fire. He alerted Saud and ran away. Since Saud is an experienced cook, he went into the kitchen to see what had happened, which is when he realised the intensity and that he was trapped. As the fire started spreading, Saud ran out of the kitchen to save himself," one of his colleagues told TNIE.

His friend was at Apollo Hospital in Jayanagar, where Saud is being treated. "I asked Saud to escape from there. I am shocked to see him in this condition. He was left with no option but to jump off the fourth floor of the building," he said.

Saud was initially rushed to KG Hospital in Tilak Nagar and was then shifted to Apollo. He sustained multiple injuries. His right arm is fractured and sustained back, spinal and hip-related injuries. Doctors said the next 72 hours are critical for Saud. He is unconscious and on ventilator support.

Glass buildings in city not safe: experts

BOSKY KHANNA @ Bengaluru

THE number of glass structures in the city is increasing, only on account of their aesthetic appeal. But there are no special safety measures in place in case of any untoward incidents, especially fire.

A senior BBMP official admitted to The New Indian Express that while giving building plan clearances for glass structures, no special safety measures are followed, especially in case of fire accidents. With glass buildings proliferating, and the blaze that gutted Mudpipe Cafe, opposite Forum Mall, where glass shattered due to the fire, BBMP is now planning a detailed survey of all glass buildings to bring in stringent safety measures.

"Glass buildings are not safe. They are not good for the environment too. We have no rule to stop permissions. In concrete structures, window panes shatter in case of fire. But in glass buildings, the entire structure is prone to cracking, increasing risk to people. They also absorb more heat, making it all the more difficult for people to escape," said the BBMP official.

Architects and experts point out that glass structures can handle fires up to 232 degrees Celsius.

Sharath Nayak, director and architect, Biome Environmental, said proper safety measures should be put in place. Glass cracks because of fire, so it should be handled with care.

Another architect, who works with the government, said though glass is said to be fire-resistant to a large extent, there is no check on the quality. Glass buildings can hold out disaster for a long time, but they should be used appropriately and only for external aesthetics. There are many instances where glass is used for the entire buildingm without any barriers," said the architect.

How does the Fire department issue NOC?

- Any building (commercial, residential and public) which is 15 metres and above should mandatorily get an NOC from the Karnataka Fire and Emergency Services department before applying for the Occupancy Certificate (OC).
- An inspecting officer will visit the building, physically verify the provisions for fire safety including the location of water tanks for domestic use and fire fighting, the source of water, escape lighting and exit signs, gas supply, smoke control and fire fighting installations, and others before issuing an NOC.
- The issued NOCs should be renewed every two years by the building owner.
- Fire Officers nominated by the Director General, the fire department must certify the building as 'safe'.

STEPS INVOLVED AFTER GETTING NOC FROM FIRE DEPT

- BBMP shall not grant OC to buildings violating building by-laws and zonal regulations.
- Building owners should give an affidavit about the working conditions of their systems along with an inspection report to the fire department, and BBMP/ Municipal Authority every two years.
- Only if the above criteria are met, BBMP will issue the OC

CONG RIFT COMES TO FORE DURING DKS' B'GAVI VISIT

MLAs, MLCs backed by Satish Jarkiholi stay away from welcoming DyCM

Deputy Chief Minister D K Shivakumar being felicitated by Congress workers in Hukkeri near Belagavi on Wednesday | EXPRESS

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @Belagavi

THE alleged meddling by top leaders of the Congress, including senior ministers, in the affairs of Belagavi district has irked PWD and Belagavi in-charge Minister Satish Jarkiholi who is seen as a prospective chief ministerial candidate supported by a large chunk of MLAs.

According to sources close to Jarkiholi, the minister has already discussed the increasing meddling by Deputy Chief Minister D K Shivakumar and Women and Child Development Minister Laxmi Hebbalkar in the affairs of Belagavi, with Chief Minister Siddaramaiah. "The intervention of top party leaders in the process of transfer of officials and political affairs of Belagavi district has upset Jarkiholi for the past few months," sources said.

An associate of Jarkiholi said the latter never intervened in the affairs of other districts, including those where Shivakumar and Hebbalkar were incharge ministers. Then why should somebody intervene in the affairs of Belagavi? he said.

In the backdrop of all the politics unfolding in Belagavi, the absence of most legislators from the district to welcome Shivakumar was conspicuous on Wednesday. Including Jarkiholi and Hebbalkar, most MLAs and MLCs of the party stayed away from greeting Shivakumar during his visit to Belagavi.

To send a strong message to the party and his opponents, Jarkiholi is trying to get many of the party MLAs together with him in a show of strength. More MLAs in the party are expected to join him in his ongoing efforts to gain complete control over Belagavi politics, sources said.

Recently, many MLAs joined him when he had decided to herd them to Mysuru on the pretext of attending the Dasara festivities. However, his tour was suspended under pressure from the party leadership.

When asked about the development, Jarkiholi said there was nothing political about the tour and that he had intimated the CM and DyCM about the planned tour of MLAs to Mysuru. "We had to cancel the tour at the last moment as some legislators were busy in their constituencies," he added.

Jarkiholi also denied any groupism in the party and said all leaders are united.

'No division in Cong'

During his visit to Belagavi on Wednesday, Shivakumar denied any rift in the party and said all the 136 MLAs of the Congress are together and united.

He blamed the BJP for spreading false narratives about the Congress and its leaders and clarified that he had no differences with Jarkiholi or other leaders.

Kateel, HDK no judges to warn of jail: Shivakumar

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Belagavi

DEPUTY Chief Minister D K Shivakumar hit back at BJP state president Nalin Kumar Kateel and JDS leader H D Kumaraswamy over Kateel's statement that Shivakumar should get ready to go to Tihar jail again. Shivakumar said Kateel and Kumaraswamy are not judges to send him to jail.

Speaking to media persons here on Wednesday, he said he held discussions with officials of the Irrigation Department about various projects in Belagavi. "The Ghataprabha, Markendeya, Hippargi and Almatti reservoirs are up to 90 per cent full, but water storage in Malaprabha dam is 52 per cent currently," he said.

While stating that there were some problems in the process of appointments to various posts in the Irrigation Department in Belagavi division, he said 1,322 posts were sanctioned for Belagavi out of which 671 appointments were made, he said. He will initiate measures to fill the other 651 posts after going to Bengaluru on Thursday.

He said officials will hold discussions with the Rural Development Department on the proposed repairs of canals in the state. The works will be taken up under NREGA and with the help of locals, he said.

Commenting on the Kalasa-Banduri project, he said the Centre should take the initiative to resolve the differences between the stakeholder states to make way for the project, he said.

HC quashes proceedings against minister

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court has quashed criminal proceedings initiated under the Wildlife Protection Act against Horticulture and Mines Minister S S Mallikarjun, his brother S S Ganesh, an industrialist, and others on grounds of violation of procedure in registration of the crime by the forest department and also the order by the magistrate.

Along with Mallikarjun and Ganesh, who are sons of senior Congress MLA Shyamanur Shivashankarappa, proceedings were quashed against two other accused -- Sampanna Mutalik and Karibasappa.

Justice M Nagaprasanna passed the order while allowing three separate petitions filed by the accused against the proceedings pending before the magistrate court in Davanagere.

The court noted that the forest officer, after conducting a search and seizure, has to record all details in the wildlife offence register in a prescribed format and prepare a report. Only after that, the complaint should be filed. However, this was not done at all, the court added.

The court also noted that further proceedings could not be permitted to continue as even the procedure followed by the magistrate was completely topsy-turvy.

According to the prosecution, one Senthil was taken into custody by the Hebbal police in Bengaluru after he was found selling pelts, antlers and teeth of wild animals on Ballari Road and a crime was registered under the provisions of the Wildlife (Protection) Act.

Senthil stated before the police that he was rearing wild animals on instructions of the owner of Kalleshwar Rice Mills at Anekonda in Davanagere district. On searching the premises, the CCB police communicated the same to the Assistant Conservator of Forests (ACF), Davanagere, for further action. The Range Forest Officer (RFO) filed a private complaint before the magistrate stating that he found several animals, including spotted deer and black buck, in the farmhouse of Mallikarjun, on December 21, 2022.

Then the magistrate took cognisance of the offences and issued a direction to the ACF to conduct the investigation. Thereafter, the ACF registered the FIR under the Karnataka Forest Manual for offences punishable under the the Wildlife (Protection) Act. The final report was submitted on May 8, 2023, and the magistrate took cognisance yet again against the the seven accused.

BJP MUST FILL UP IMPORTANT POSTS IN KARNATAKA UNIT SOON

BANSY KALAPPA @Bengaluru

THE BJP will get a new state president around Dasara, and with BJP Parliamentary Board member and former chief minister B S Yediyurappa affirming it will happen soon, there is much hope in the state party unit.

The names of Union Minister Shobha Karandlaje, former general secretary CT Ravi and MLA B Y Vijayendra are doing the rounds as frontrunners for the president's post. With the Lok Sabha elections just about six months away, many in the party have expressed unhappiness that state and district office-bearer positions have not been revamped, though their term of office ended over 14 months ago.

An office-bearer in an important position in a district unit spoke about a lack of motivation in the party. Besides, many BJP members complained that the central leadership had been refusing to discuss the Karnataka issue for want of time, especially with elections to five state assemblies next month.

Party workers are now asking whether the state will have to wait till December before they can get new office-bearers. Party insiders said it may happen sooner, considering the party machinery has much groundwork to complete before the Lok Sabha polls.

Sources said, "Structurally speaking, each district has a president, vice-president, gen sec, secretary, treasurer, district executive members and teams of Morcha office-bearers. Cumulatively speaking, scores of positions will need to be filled up with the right people if BJP wishes to perform well in the 2024 polls."

A key BJP functionary said that after Nalin Kateel's term expired, one group is working hard to bring in CT Ravi as state president, but another group has asked how a person who lost his seat, and couldn't help BJP in his own district, help the party do well in the state. A group opposed to the Ravi group has been pushing for Union Minister Shobha Karandlaje or B Y Vijayendra and it is left to the central leadership to finalize this.

BJP State General Secretary Ravi Kumar told TNIE, "We will have a new team of office-bearers soon."

Action against Ibrahim likely at JDS meet

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI
@ Bengaluru

ALTHOUGH former union minister CM Ibrahim claims that the "original" Janata Dal Secular (JDS) is with him and he is its state unit president, the party's core committee and state council is likely to take action against him on Thursday.

The 20-member core committee, 60-member council, 19 MLAs, former MLAs and former MPs from the party will hold a meeting under the leadership of party's national president HD Deve Gowda, former chief minister HD Kumaraswamy and core committee chairman GT Deve Gowda.

Since Ibrahim resigned as state unit president on May 14 owning moral responsibility for the JDS' debacle in the May 10 Assembly elections, the party leadership may accept it now, according to JDS sources.

Some leaders want the party leadership to take stringent action against Ibrahim for his "anti-party" activity and criticising the decision to ally with BJP for the 2024 Lok Sabha elections. The question doing the rounds is will Gowda and Kumaraswamy go for Ibrahim's expulsion or suspension from the party?

Ibrahim, who had opposed the JDS leadership's move to ally with the BJP, had even stated that the party is unlikely to retain its symbol as its units in Kerala, Tamil Nadu and Maharashtra are against the alliance. This has apparently angered the party leadership, the sources said.

During a meeting on October 16, Ibrahim attacked the Gowda family stating that JDS is not any "family's asset". He stated that the "original" JDS is with him and it will back the I.N.D.I.A bloc. All these developments have apparently irked the JDS leadership.

CM calls for research on crops to withstand extreme conditions

Bengaluru: Chief Minister Siddaramaiah said due to climate change, the state is continuously facing excessive rainfall and drought. Agricultural universities should do more research about the kind of crops that can be grown in less rain and less water, and ways to prevent crop damage due to extreme weather conditions, he said after the inauguration of DAESI Sammelana and a new building of the Baking Technology and Value Addition Institute at the University of Agricultural Sciences, Bengaluru. He said agricultural universities play a vital role in increasing food production to cater to the needs of the growing population. Study and research at agricultural universities should become qualitative and boost food production. ENS

BJP slams Congress minister over cash shower

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

BJP leaders on Wednesday slammed Sugar Minister Shivanand Patil after a video clip of currency notes being showered at a private function attended by him in Telangana went viral on social media.

BJP state general secretary and MLC N Ravi Kumar said there is a need for a detailed probe into the source of the money that was showered at the minister's programme. Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar should give an explanation to the people of the state, he said.

Union Minister Pralhad Joshi hit out at the minister. "Congress Minister Shivanand Patil, who had ridiculed farmers saying they commit suicide for just Rs 5 lakhs compensation, has been caught having fun in the shower of money in Hyderabad. The Congress government does not have money for the development of Karnataka, but there is no limit to such acts by its ministers. This is the current situation of the Congress government in Karnataka! #ATMSarkara," the Union minister stated on X.

BJP leader Gaurav Bhatia said a video of Patil, a minister in the Congress government in Karnataka, is going viral. "In the video, notes are being showered on him. Notably, this corrupt minister has himself accepted that it was his video. Looting public money is the goal of the Congress, and the will to serve public is not in its DNA," he said. The BJP has accused the Congress of mobilizing funds for the party's assembly election campaign in the five states.

Patil rubbished the BJP's allegations stating that he was only attending a wedding in Hyderabad. Many others, including MLAs and ministers in Telangana, also attended the wedding. If it was their (hosts) culture (to throw money) and how can he stop them? he said.

BJP seeks CBI, ED probe into allegations

Bengaluru: BJP General Secrtary N Ravi Kumar said the Rs 94 crore seized by IT sleuths belonged to the Congress and demanded a probe by the CBI and ED into the matter. "Ministers Shivanand Patil, DK Shivakumar, Byrathi Suresh and others have collected money in the state. There is information that crores has been collected," he said but did not substantiate this claim with any evidence. Kumar said thousands of crores are being sent to the five poll-bound states. There should also be an investigation into how much has been pocketed," the BJP leader said. ENS

IT will reveal source of money: Dr G

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

WITH the BJP leadership up in arms against the ruling Congress government in Karnataka over the I-T raids, Home Minister Dr G Parameshwara said mere guessing as to whom the seized money belonged is not right as the I-T department will revel the source.

"The IT department can only reveal whose money it was. Probably, they were still investigating (with regard to IT raids). But guessing whose money it was is not right," he said.

Union Minister for Parliamentary Affairs Prahlad Joshi has alleged that the Congress government in Karnataka was collecting the money to fund its alliance partners who are part of I.N.D.I.A bloc. He had replied to Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's post on X that the BJP government at the Centre was getting raids conducted as it has failed to collect money like before with the biggest source from "40 per cent commission" from Karnataka being stopped.

"Chief Minister @siddaramaiah, a thief never admits that he is a thief. You have betrayed the Kannadigas and you have neglected the development and it seems that your government is responsible for taking care of the election expenses of your allied parties. Which was why a bundle of notes were unearthed in the contractor's house. It is clear that "Collection" is going on rampant and the money that is not for the development of the state is being discovered in your people's house", he posted.

K'taka to set up 400 Grama Nyayalayas

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

THE Cabinet is expected to take up a proposal to start Grama Nyayalayas in 400 or more gram panchayats across Karnataka, as a tangible step to take justice to the grassroots. The thinking is that local disputes and legal issues need to be redressed locally.

The proposal is likely to be taken up in the Cabinet on Thursday afternoon. Expected to cost about Rs 100 crore, it will be a huge administrative step. Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, DyCM DK Shivakumar and Law Minister HK Patil have held meetings with the bureaucracy – the chief secretary, legal secretary, revenue secretary and other stakeholders to make justice available to people in villages. There are more than 8,000 gram panchayats and it will take years before each village gets a court.

Grama Nyayalayas were proposed to be taken up in villages across the nation, and Karnataka, as a pilot project, started two nyayalayas which are still functioning. As a policy issue, the Union government encourages Grama Nyayalayas, which will be deemed to be Judicial Magistrate Court of First Class, with both criminal and civil jurisdictions to settle petty disputes.

Grama Nyayalayas have been started in many states, and 257 courts are operational in 10 states. Madhya Pradesh has 89 functional Grama Nyayalayas, Rajasthan has 45, Uttar Pradesh has 44, Kerala 30, Maharashtra has 23, and Odisha has 19 such courts.

The Central government provides assistance to states towards non-recurring expenses, subject to a maximum of Rs 18 lakh, and other expenses to the tune of about Rs 3.2 lakh, sources said. The Union government could chip in to set up these village courts in Karnataka, with its share of one time and recurring expenditure going up to around Rs 85 crore.

Once the government gives administrative approval, it could take a few months for the courts to be set up, sources said. Once the 400 Grama Nyayalayas turn functional, Karnataka will have the highest functional Grama Nyayalayas across the nation.

BJP's offer to Cong MLAs will be exposed in session: DKS

Bengaluru: Deputy Chief Minister D K Shivakumar on Wednesday warned that he will expose the BJP's offer to certain Congress MLAs to switch loyalties, in the next assembly session. "I know everything as some concerned people informed me and the CM about who met which MLAs and what they are doing. They also informed us what offer was given to the MLAs. We have all the information and I will get them (MLAs) to reveal about it in the session," he told reporters, when asked whether there was a conspiracy to topple the Congress government in the state. Shivakumar had stated in the recent past that a BJP team was meeting Congress MLAs. On a meeting between former CM Jagadish Shettar and Ramesh Jarkiholi, he said there was no room for suspicion of Shettar returning to the BJP. "Jagadish Shettar has shown what his strength is, and I will not talk any more about this," he said, apparently referring to Shettar's efforts to bring more BJP leaders to the Congress. "BJP and JDS have reached their final stage of desperation, and doctors should do a major operation on them," he quipped, as the opposition parties have been attacking him persistently. ENS

Congress MP Rahul Gandhi offers prayers at Ramappa Temple in Mulugu, Telangana, prior to launching the party's campaign, on Tuesday | EXPRESS

CONGRESS leaders Rahul Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi on Wednesday launched the party's election campaign at Mulugu in the erstwhile Warangal district, with a clarion call to the people to choose between 'Dhorala Telangana' and 'Prajala Telangana' - feudal landlords (BRS) and common people (Congress). The duo hit the election trail after taking blessings at the Ramappa Temple.

They proceeded to the venue of the public meeting in a bus yatra from the temple. During the public meeting, they sought to explain how Congress had given Telangana, by considering the aspirations of people and jeopardising the future of the party. They claimed that no party would do against their interest, knowing that the party will be damaged. "The decision is for your future," they said, stating that the control and remote control of the BRS government is in the hands of Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

Addressing the gathering first, Priyanka sought to strike a chord with the people touching upon several issues ranging from the recent suicide of Pravallika to the alleged woes of farmers and women. She appealed to the people to introspect whether their lives have been changed in the current dispensation, and whether Congress implemented its guarantee schemes in the states where it is in ruling.

Stating that Congress has a comprehensive roadmap and vision for Telangana, she explained six guarantees of the Congress, while appealing to vote for the future of the children, for employment, and for social justice.

"You have seen a dream of Telangana development, creation of employment, and ensuring social justice. You believed in your dream. You thought TRS, and now BRS, would fulfill it during the previous election. You had a ray of hope that your lives would be transformed in the lines envisioned by Phule, Ambedkar, and Komaram Bheem. But, in vain," she said.

Slamming the BRS government, Rahul said that vote to BRS will translate into BJP, while citing instances of BRS extending support to the bills introduced by BJP in Parliament. He said that all the three parties - BJP, BRS, and AIMIM - work collectively in defeating the Congress.

Share transfer case: Ramoji, Sailaja get relief

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Vijayawada

THE Andhra Pradesh High Court on Wednesday issued interim orders staying any further action against Margadarsi Chit Fund Private Limited (MCFPL) Chairman Ch Ramoji Rao and Managing Director Ch Sailaja Kiran in the case filed by the AP CID for allegedly threatening and getting the shares of a person transferred on the name of Sailaja, for eight weeks. The court also directed the CID not to take any coercive action against the duo.

The CID filed a case on October 13 based on a complaint lodged by Gadireddi Yuri Reddi, alleging that Ramoji Rao threatened him at gunpoint and got his shares transferred on the name of Sailaja fraudulently. Ramoji and Sailaja filed a petition in the High Court on October 16, seeking quash of the FIR.

When the petition came up for hearing, the petitioners' counsels Sidharth Luthra and Nagamuthu informed the court that the government was harassing the petitioners by registering cases. The counsels informed the court that Yuri was paid through a cheque for transferring his shares. Yuri, who signed the documents pertaining to the transfer of shares to MCFPL, later complained to the Registrar of Companies. While the complaint is pending before the Registrar of Companies, he lodged a complaint with the CID.

The counsels argued that MCFPL was established in Hyderabad and the share transfer also took place in Hyderabad and the APCID does not have any jurisdiction to probe into the matter. Though Sailaja is not facing any allegations, her name was also included in the FIR, they added. APCID's counsel Y Sivakalpana Reddy said the complainant had lodged the complaint with the investigating agency as it had already launched a probe into the alleged irregularities in MCFPL. The counsel informed that they are yet to investigate the origin of the stamp on the document pertaining to the transfer of shares and urged the court not to give any interim orders. The CID counsel said the case would be transferred to the Telangana CID, if the court is of the view that the APCID does not have jurisdiction on it.

Questioning the APCID as to how it could register a case on an alleged offence that took place in Telangana, Justice BVLN Chakravarthi issued orders staying all the further proceedings in the FIR. The court asked the CID to file a counter and posted the matter for hearing on December 6.

Stalin calls AIADMK BJP's B-team as he is afraid of poll defeat, says EPS

THINAKARAN RAJAMANI @ Tenkasi

AIADMK general secretary and Opposition leader Edappadi K Palaniswami said Chief Minister MK Stalin keeps on terming AIADMK as the B-team of the BJP as "he is afraid of DMK's defeat in the upcoming Parliamentary election". Palaniswami was addressing the party cadre on the occasion of AIADMK's 52nd anniversary in Sankarankovil on Wednesday.

Addressing party cadre, Palaniswami said his party is having an election agenda for safeguarding the rights of minorities. "We broke ties with the BJP at the Centre. However, Stalin continues to say AIADMK is acting as a B-team of BJP. He says so as he is afraid of defeat in the Parliamentary election. Why should he worry about our exit from the NDA? Stalin asks us if we can name our Prime Ministerial candidate. I ask him if he dares to name the PM candidate for the I.N.D.I.A alliance. AIADMK will form its own alliance in Tamil Nadu to face the Parliamentary election. Our agenda for election is to save the rights of Tamil Nadu and the minorities and get funds for state projects. We are not targeting power at the Centre like DMK, but we will raise the voice of the people in Parliament," he added.

Recalling the 52-year journey of the party, Palaniswami said only in AIADMK, the grassroot level cadre could come to the top post. "But, the DMK is a corporate company in which Stalin and his son Udhayanidhi are the chairman and director respectively. Stalin's sister Kanimozhi, son-in-law Sabareesan and wife Durga get importance in the company. The DMK government did nothing for the people for the past two-and-a-half years," the former CM said.

Carcass of striped hyena raises fears of rabies

ENS @ Gadag

A striped hyena, an endangered species, was found dead near a forest in Gajendragad on Tuesday. The discovery of the hyena's carcass has raised many questions in the minds of wildlife enthusiasts, as the animal is believed to be having a strong immune system.

Wildlife activists and foresters have told villagers to be away from the forest areas and keep an eye on those who enter the hillocks or forest belts to kill hyenas or other animals. However, the increased presence of foresters in these areas in recent times has brought down the number of hunting cases and killings.

This is a rare incident that a middle-aged hyena was found dead. Manjunath Nayak, a biodiversity expert, said, "When hyenas feed on carcasses infected with rabies or other fungal infection, there are chances of the rabies virus getting transmitted into its body. Stray dogs are the main carriers of rabies virus. There could be a possibility of canine distemper, which is a contagious and viral disease that affects a wide range of mammal families, including domestic and wild species of dogs, jackals, foxes, wolves and felines (cats), as well as some primates".

A staffer from Veterinary College in Gadag, Nikhil Kulkarni, who has been taking care of animals in the zoo, said, "The exact cause of the hyena's death will be known after an autopsy is done. The details of the autopsy report will be shared by the Deputy Conservator of Forest (DCF)".

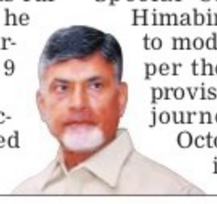
Meanwhile, Gadag DCF Dipika Bajpai said there is no need to panic as the hyena appears to have died a normal death. The presence of rabies virus is highly unlikely, she added.

Naidu's plea for call data records adjourned to Oct 20

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Vijayawada

THE ACB Special Court in Vijayawada on Wednesday adjourned the hearing on the petition filed by TDP chief N Chandrababu Naidu, seeking the call data records of the APCID to October 20.

Naidu's counsel filed the petition in the ACB court on September 11 seeking the call data records of the APCID and Nandyal police, alleging that the former chief minister was taken into custody unofficially on September 8 night and wrong information was furnished to the court that he was served notices and arrested on September 9 morning.



Raising serious objections to the petition filed by Naidu's counsel, ACB Special Court Judge BSV Himabindu directed them to modify the petition as per the applicable legal provisions. The judge adjourned the hearing to October 20 after a modified petition was submitted to the court.

The ACB Court Judge said the order on the Prisoner Transit (PT) warrant petition filed by the APCID pertaining to the AP FiberNet case will be pronounced on October 20 as the anticipatory bail petition of Naidu is pending in the Supreme Court.

In yet another development in the AP State Skill Development Corporation case, the CID submitted another petition seeking the extension of the judicial remand of Naidu. The petition will be heard on October 19.

Dasara Gold Cards sold out in 20 minutes

ENS @ Mysuru

THE much-awaited Dasara Gold Cards were sold out in just 20 minutes. The cards were available only online. The moment the cards were put up for sale, hundreds logged on to the www.mysoredasara.gov.in to buy the cards but very few were lucky to grab one.

The demand for Gold Cards is rising every year as it gives access to a seat inside the palace for the Jamboo Savari procession, free entry to tourist spots including Chamundi Hill, Brindavan Garden, Zoo, Kanarnji Lake and Jagan Mohan Palace.

The international tour operators and tourist chains in Mysuru and other places used to buy Gold Cards so that there would be no hassles for visitors for the Jamboo Savari and Torchlight parade at Bannimantap.

Mysore Travels Association founder B S Prashanth said the Dasara committee sold at least 2,500 Gold Cards and demanded a thousand more cards as there are too many inquiries from across the country. He said offices of the travel agents are flooded with phone calls and inquiries for tickets and the government should sell more cards so that it can attract more foreign tourists and travellers from across the country. "We are not against holding back Gold Cards for VIPs. However, officials must increase the number of cards for the benefit of the general public, said Mukund, a techie.

DANDAKARANYA MAOIST TO LEAD OPS IN WESTERN GHATS

MP PRASHANTH @ Kozhikode

THE CPI (Maoist) has assigned Paka Hanumanthu alias Ganesh Uike, believed to be one of the brains behind the 2013 attack in Chhattisgarh's Sukma in which Congress leader VC Shukla was killed, the charge of overseeing the outfit's functioning in Western Ghats area.

The decision comes at a time when the organisation's activities in the Western Ghats area were facing serious reversals after the arrest and killing of its leaders and cadres.

Hailing from Nalgonda in Telangana, Hanumanthu was a member of the party's Dandakaranya Special Zonal Committee. He was asked to join the movement in the trijunction area, but he could not accomplish the task because of the arrest of Raghavendra alias Goutham from Kannur in 2021. Goutham was acting as the courier between the central committee and Western Ghats Special Zonal Committee and the Maoists could not find a suitable replacement for him.

Sources said it is not known whether Hanumanthu had recently joined the cadres who are operating in the forests of Wayanad, Kozhikode and Kannur areas. There was also a decision to bring in 12 armed Maoist cadres from other parts of the country to the trijunction of Kerala-Karnataka-Tamil Nadu to strengthen Maoist activities. It is also not yet confirmed whether the squad has joined their comrades in Kerala.

Hanumanthu is the only member in the Southern Regional Bureau (SRB) of the CPI (Maoist) not in jail. The other two, B G Krishnamurthy and Sanjay Deepak Rao, are now in prison. Krishnamurthy was arrested from Wayanad in November 2021 and Rao from Telangana in September 2023. Both were the central committee members of the CPI (Maoist).

SAME-SEX MARRIAGE

Bengalurean raised medical issues, legal points on children in apex court

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

A five-judge bench of the Supreme Court on Tuesday pronounced a historic order which says that same-sex marriage cannot be legalised. Interestingly, in this case, Bengalurean Som Thomas had intervened and presented his arguments in a 40-page application. He had also made oral submissions before the bench.

Asked about his role in this issue, he said it began during his corporate career when several MNCs in Bengaluru had begun emphasising on diversity as a corporate theme. "It meant including more women at work, more people with disabilities, and then they insisted that LGBTQ people should also find the workplace inclusive. Initially, it seemed like the right thing to do and was very educative. However, with time it took on the flavour of making homosexuality look cool," Som said. He raised his concerns with the management, who however, insisted on a push for 'pride' events round the year.

He said he saw propaganda in the corporate effort. "This went back to 1971, when a man called Frank Kameny said that 'Gay is Good'. At that time, the American Psychiatric Association had listed homosexuality as a disease. Kameny felt homosexuals were ill-treated because of this classification, so in the APA annual meetings in 1971 and 1972, he campaigned very hard to have homosexuality removed from the DSM. It was eventually done, though it was not a scientific decision but propaganda, which is the method the LGBTQ movement has used since then.

On the salient points of his intervention, he said back in 2018, the IPC Section 377 judgment pivoted on the fact that the bench thought homosexuality is natural. Som emphasised that homosexuality, especially penile anal penetration, has its own medical consequences – not just HIV, but proctitis and other diseases. Som Thomas quotes a doctor as saying that a doctor who fails to inform his patient against receiving penile anal penetration, is failing in his duty, like a doctor who fails to inform that smoking is injurious to health.

He also emphasised that Indian law on marriage talks about consummation and impotence, which refer to a very specific type of sexual intercourse. The government's interest is in family structures that can sustain life: the birth of children as well as the best conditions for their upbringing. The Solicitor General of India brought out how complex marriage law is. For example, the Hindu Succession Act defines different blood relations as 'full blood', 'half blood' and 'uterine blood'. If a child is born to a gay man who has donated sperm to a surrogate mother, or if a child is born to a lesbian woman who has received sperm donated by a stranger, how can these laws be applied? The Solicitor General brought out very clearly, that around 160 sections across multiple laws have to be changed to make the entire marriage definition gender-neutral, if at all it is possible.

On how he sees this going ahead, Thomas said in future, LGBTQ activists will try to use the word 'union' to bring in same-sex marriage by some means. The real concern is about children. It is often stated in these cases, and also by Justice Chandrachud, that children of same-sex marriages develop as well as children of heterosexual marriages, but this is not an accurate professional statement. The American Psychological Association says children of lesbian women are similar to children of heterosexual parents, but it does not have data for children of gay men to support such a claim. So a generalised statement that any same-sex parents can bring up children effectively is incorrect.

RULING DEPRIVES QUEER COUPLES THE BENEFITS OTHERS CAN AVAIL

THE Supreme Court's verdict against pleas for marriage equality is a devastating blow not just to members of the LGBTQIA+ community but to all persons invested in the values of personal freedom and liberty. The five-judge bench unanimously agreed that there is no fundamental right to marriage. While two judges contended that reading gender neutral language into the Special Marriage Act (SMA) would amount to legislating, the three-judge majority was of the opinion that marriage equality could only be provided by statute. On the right to adoption, the Chief Justice alone ruled in favour of queer couples while the majority strongly disagreed.

The main plea of the petitioners was simple: the SMA, which does not draw from culture or custom, implicitly excludes members of the queer community by stipulating that only man and woman can be married under it. They argued that this was discrimination based on an inherent characteristic and could be remedied by reading gender-neutral language into the law. However, the court, while expending pages of text acknowledging the discrimination faced by the community, baulked at the notion of providing the remedy sought, leaving the matter to parliament to legislate. Given the court's judgments on privacy, Section 377 and in the NALSA case, marriage equality appeared to be a natural progression. Yet the majority saw no contradiction in admitting the law allows queer couples the right to choose their own partners and form unions while claiming that this freedom did not extend to the institution of marriage through which the state makes available a variety of benefits; these benefits would be lost to queer couples merely due to their sexual or gender identity.

The court has left the matter to parliament yet given the ruling the tenor of the Union government's arguments, leaving little hope for the community. Worse, in accepting the government's proposal of forming a panel to look into the matter, the court did not even see it fit to impose a timeline for the committee's formation and findings. Love is love, apparently, but not when it comes to the basics: insurance, the right to make medical decisions for a loved one, or the ability to start a family. One cannot fault members of the community if they read the verdict as one recognising them equal to heterosexual couples, but implying they are still not equal enough to access the status and benefits bestowed on heterosexual couples by society and the state.

LINK VIZHINJAM PORT TO TRANSPORT GRID SOON

WHEN Kerala Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan flagged the Chinese ship Zhen Hua 15 into the Vizhinjam port on Sunday, it was the realisation of a three decade long development dream of the state. The event also marked a major milestone in development of the country's ports—the ₹7,600-crore International Transhipment Deep-water Multipurpose Seaport is India's first container transhipment port. Developed as a public-private partnership by the Kerala government and Adani Ports, it is expected to help India grab a bigger share of the seaborne trade market.

The biggest advantage of Vizhinjam is its strategic location. It is barely 10 nautical miles from the international shipping route that accounts for 30 percent of global cargo traffic. This and the benefit of having a natural channel up to 24 metres deep make Vizhinjam an ideal hub. Until now, big container ships have been skipping India because its harbours were not deep enough to handle such vessels; they preferred docking at alternative ports such as Colombo, Dubai and Singapore. According to experts, these two unique aspects of Vizhinjam—the proximity and the depth—will enable it to substantially boost the country's blue economy.

The berthing of the first vessel marked the culmination of an idea seeded in the 1990s. Successive LDF and UDF governments since then have played significant roles in making the project a reality. The port certainly has the potential to open up a number of direct and indirect business and job opportunities across sectors such as warehousing, cargo handling, tourism and hospitality. But amid the hype, it must not be forgotten that the arrival of the first ship was just a beginning. The next crucial step is to ensure enough logistics support to connect the port to the rest of the country. It is imperative to have a network of rail and road links without any procedural delay if all these aspirations are to become a reality. Equally important is the need to address the concerns of the local fishermen, whose lives and livelihood have been upended. It is the government's responsibility to help them. No development is complete if it fails to make the local population a part of it.

QUICK TAKE

GIVE THEM BREAD, NOT THE CIRCUS

THE Congress manifesto for Madhya Pradesh packs more than a thousand promises into about a hundred pages. It includes financial support for families, farmers, students, the elderly and the girl child. Uncharacteristically, it also promises an IPL cricket franchise for the state. The thought of attracting the masses with bread and circuses is as old as first-century Roman poet Juvenal. We would suggest give the people of Madhya Pradesh bread, but do not bring the circus into town. Rather, work should be done to depoliticise sports. The Supreme Court said in 2016 that politics should be taken out of sports. The Congress should heed that.

India has a robust and admired statistical system. But the government is suppressing data to suit its narrative. It is perilous not to know the reality of the governed

WHEN NUMBERS ARE TREATED AS POLITICAL WEAPONS

JAYATI GHOSH
Professor of economics, University of Massachusetts Amherst, US and former professor, Jawaharlal Nehru University, Delhi

SOURAV ROY

NO government in India has been as adept in shaping the political narrative as the Modi government since 2014. This has been accomplished through a domination of most of the mainstream media, significant control over social media, ruthless intimidation and repression of dissident voices, and reliance on a web of disseminators on the ground. A critical aspect of this has been the ability to control, manipulate and suppress official data in ways that are designed to conform to the desired narrative.

This means that an aggressive attitude towards economic statistics—and indeed to all data that could force some accountability—has become one of the defining features of the government. As a result, a national statistical system that was once the pride of India and the envy of most developing countries is now weakened, eroded and increasingly less reliable.

On the face of it, this may seem like a contradictory, even self-defeating, strategy for any government. After all, even minimal governance requires some basic knowledge about those who are to be governed—at the very least, how many people there are and where they are. Much more information is required to be effective in improving the conditions of the people: about how they live, work and earn; about disparities in income and wealth; about access to basic needs including food, health, housing, sanitation; about levels of education and skill; about ecological conditions and much more.

India's statistical system was remarkable for a relatively poor country. Even before independence, the decennial Census exercise of the colonial government provided some basic information. From the early 1950s, India's statisticians sought to develop methodologies for surveys that could capture consumption expenditure and employment changes and patterns, using imaginative techniques suited to an economy that was largely informal. These were periodically tweaked as gaps and anomalies were recognised. National income indicators like the gross domestic product (GDP) were developed in conformity with the UN's System of National Accounts. As economic planning developed, other official data were generated, such as input-output tables and human development indicators that also recognised different social categories. Poverty estimates were based on data generated through the consumption surveys, and other backwardness criterions based on survey data also became important for policy formulation.

But since 2014, several moves have dramatically changed the availability and reliability of such essential data. This began with the revision of the base year for estimates of national income, an exercise which occurs every few years. The change to the new base year of 2011-12 brought changes in methodology. An important change was in how industrial output is measured, shifting away from mainly using the Index of Industrial Production, which is a physical measure of output. Now company reports are used, even though that data includes a significant proportion (around a third) of dummy companies, shows very wide fluctuations and can reflect incentives for companies to misstate their returns. This led to a dramatic increase in manufacturing output that was not confirmed by other economic indicators and appears to have been designed to present the Modi government in a better light than the previous one.

Next, though the results of the Periodic Labour Force Survey of 2017-18 were available in late 2018, they were withheld from the public until after the 2019 elections, presumably because they indicated stagnant or declining employment and high rates of open unemployment. Even worse, the results of the survey on consumption expenditure for 2017-18 were withdrawn and the government simply refused to release the data. A leaked report procured by journalists indicated alarming declines in rural consumption and significant increases in rural poverty between 2011-2012 and 2017-2018. Since then, no fresh consumption survey has even been conducted, even though that is essential for assessing the extent of absolute poverty, food consumption and inequality. So there is no information on how these crucial indicators have moved after 2011-12—more than a decade ago.

In the absence of essential and comparable data on poverty, the Niti Aayog has developed its own indicator—an index based on a collection of different estimates including mobile phone usage. All too predictably, this index shows a sharp decline in poverty in the country over the past decade, conforming to the preferred official narrative.

The Covid pandemic provided an excuse for the government to delay the Census that should have been conducted in 2021, even though other major infection-spreading events like assembly elections and associated rallies continued. Remarkably, there has been no attempt to conduct the Census since then and it has officially been delayed "until further notice", presumably until after the next general elections. Since the last Census data relates to 2011, both the government and the public are now functioning in ignorance of the most basic data: how many people there are in the country, where, of what gender and age, and doing what.

Not only has the central government refused to conduct the national Census thus far, it is also resisting the efforts of state governments to try and fill the gap by attempting their own enumeration. The caste census, conducted by the Bihar government and now proposed in several other states, is being bitterly opposed by the central government, even though this should provide important information also on location, living and working conditions.

Other data that could shed light on the success or usefulness of government policies are also suppressed. The government's own audit of the Ganga Action Plan, for example, has simply not been released. When one of the few remaining official surveys, the National Family Health Survey for 2019-2021, revealed that open defaecation still existed despite official claims to the contrary and that the incidence of anaemia had increased among women and girls, the government response was not to consider how this can be improved, but to punish the messenger. The head of the agency that conducts the survey was suspended on vague charges, presumably as punishment. This obviously sends a signal to the person in charge of the currently ongoing survey not to publish any results that could potentially embarrass the government.

None of this suppression of data would make sense for a government interested in developing and implementing economic policies that would benefit the people, because it is hard to implement policies in such ignorance of the people for whom they are intended. This instead suggests maximum government with minimum governance: a state focused on control and the management of public perception, rather than positively changing the reality.

TURN TOWARDS GREEN, BUT MAKE THE BEST OF BLACK GOLD NOW

SUTIRTHA BHATTACHARYA
Former chairman, Coal India and West Bengal Electricity Regulatory Commission

DN PRASAD
Former adviser, Union ministry of coal

TO be or not to be with coal is the question that confounds its proponents and opponents amid the country's pursuit for energy. The question leads to a broader debate. Disheartening as it may sound from an ecological point of view, coal, a historic polluter, still sits on a high pedestal in India as the undisputed energy leader. Whether one likes it or not, coal may not lose this position in the medium term, though there will be an advent of more disruptive technologies in generation and storage. So, a good option will be to have a proactive policy framework and exploit the coal reserves.

The country's planners are rightly batting hard in favour of renewables. India ranks fourth globally in installed renewable energy capacity, according to a 2023 report.

Renewable energy sources are fast encroaching on coal's domain, with solar prices down from ₹17 a unit a decade ago to ₹2.50 today. Slowly yet steadily, wind energy capacity additions are rising. Solar energy is the stronger twin. With energy storage solutions becoming increasingly cheaper, cost-effective green power available round the clock is the new reality. Another disruption shaking the world is the rooftop solar solutions where consumers become prosumers. India, too, is no exception.

With the Net Zero by 2070 plan gaining credence, it is important to look at how India can best use the limited window of opportunity for optimal utilisation of its large coal resources—comprising in the proved and measured category an estimated 187 billion tonnes, which is only about half of our estimated geological resources.

If untapped, there is a danger of losing this locked up sovereign energy resource forever. Even when coal's role will wane, the dry fuel can be used in synthetic coal gasification and its downstream chemical products. So, there should be aggressive acceleration in coal mining and a medium-term plan to invite investments involving the latest technologies. Private sector participation should result in fast-tracked exploration, validation and optimisation of resources, apart from a transparent marketing process and the setting up of a regulator that can bring in the necessary oversight and coordination with a dedicated focus.

Towards this end, India should go ahead with the rating of its resources, which will be done by the United Nations Framework Classification (UNFC) and Joint Ore Reserve Committee (JORC) code. These are international standards for estimation and validation of mining potential to give investors more confidence to make substantial investments.

Coal India Limited (CIL), the world's largest coal producer, spearheads India's coal output with other smaller peers such as Singareni Collieries Company Limited (SCCL), captive miners and the recently allotted commercial miners.

EXPRESS

> Green technologies such as cheaper solar power and better energy storage are turning India into a renewable energy powerhouse. But for now, we can make smarter use of our huge coal reserves

Last financial year, India's overall coal production was 893 metric tonnes, clocking a robust 15 percent year-on-year growth. Over 75 percent of the coal output of government-owned entities like CIL and SCCL is routed to the power sector, and the balance is given to non-power sectors.

There are still some power plants located near coal mines, but these do not operate to their capacity and sometimes do not function at all. Supplying coal to them on a priority basis will meet economic and energy goals and the objective of pollution abatement in transport. The idea should be to transmit power but not carry coal.

Coal can meet the rising energy demand. It is imperative to facilitate development of coal mines and attract major investors and operators to India's coal mines.

Land is the major resource and is sometimes called the raw material for coal production. After mining is over in line with the approved mining and mine closure plan, restoration has to be directed by the same company. It will therefore make sense if existing public sector coal companies extract from reserves contiguous to their areas of operation.

The competent authority should set ambitious timelines for production and development of evacuation logistics, linking the latter to the market. This would help conserve the available reserves which could otherwise get sterilised in batters and barriers of nearby mines by others.

The other areas where proven reserves that have UNFC and JORC certification can be integrated into internationally viable lots and offered for using quick-extraction technology and evacuation. This would attract participation by big players who have proven expertise and capacity, be it domestic or international.

Coordination with the concerned state government in whose jurisdiction the land lies is sine qua non. A national-level steering committee comprising representatives of the central government and governments of the coal-producing states should be put in place to attain the synergy for accelerated development in the sector.

Like the Central Electricity Regulatory Commission for power, the concept of a central coal regulator is not new. The coal regulator should be endowed with power to create a transparent mechanism for coal marketing—ensuring transparency in quality and price—and be the technical authority for approving and monitoring mining and mine closure. The regulator could also be the authority for redressal of consumer grievances. It will create a level playing field for both public and private stakeholders in coal production.

Cabinet nod to 4% DA hike for govt employees

■ 4% dearness relief to pensioners ■ To be applicable from July 1, 2023 ■ Bonus for non-gazetted staff of railways

JITENDRA CHOUBEY @ New Delhi

THE Union Cabinet chaired by Prime Minister on Wednesday approved the release of an additional 4 per cent Dearness Allowance (DA) to government employees and Dearness Relief (DR) to pensioners, benefitting around 1.27 crore people.

It also announced a bonus equivalent to 78 days' salary to all eligible non-gazetted railway employees, except those of Railway Protection Force. The combined cost to exchequer on account of the DA, DR and bonus is pegged at ₹14,825.87 crore per annum.

DA and DR are money given by the government to its employees and pensioners, respectively, as a relief from the effect of inflation. It is calculated as a percentage of the basic salary.

The current increase in DA and DR will be applicable from July 1, 2023. With the 4 per cent increase over the existing DA amounting to 42 per cent of the basic pay or pension, the total percentage of DA and DR now stands at 46 per cent.

This increase is in accordance with the accepted formula, which is based on the recommendations of the Seventh Central Pay Commission.

The combined impact on the exchequer on account of both DA and DR would be ₹12,857 crore per annum. This will benefit about 48.67 lakh Central government employees and 67.95 lakh pensioners.

Moreover, the Cabinet also approved a Productivity Linked Bonus equivalent to 78 days' wages to all eligible non-gazetted railway employees for the financial year 2022-23.

These employees include track maintainers, loco pilots, train managers, station masters, supervisors, technicians, technician helpers, pointsmen, ministerial staff and other Group C staff, excluding RPF or RPSF personnel.

"The performance of the railways in the year 2022-23 was very good. The railways loaded a record cargo of 1,509 million tonnes and carried nearly 6.5 billion (650 crore) passengers," an official statement said.

In recognition of the excellent performance by the railway staff, the Union government has approved productivity-linked bonus payment amounting to ₹19,68.87 crore to 11,07,346 railway staff.

In another major decision, the Cabinet has given a go ahead for setting up of an inter-state power transmission line to evacuate solar power from a 13 Giga Watt renewable energy project in Ladakh's Leh to Kaithal in Haryana.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi, during his Independence Day Speech, had announced setting up of a 7.5 GW solar park in Ladakh.

After extensive field survey, the Ministry of New and Renewable Energy prepared a plan to set up 13 GW renewable energy generation capacity along with 12 GWh Battery Energy Storage System in Pang, Ladakh, according to an official statement.

For evacuating the huge quantum of power, it will be necessary to create an inter-state transmission infrastructure. The project is targeted to be set up by financial year 2029-30 with a total estimated cost of ₹20,773.70 crore and 40 per cent central financial assistance estimated at ₹8,309.48 crore.

The transmission line for evacuating the power will pass through Himachal Pradesh and Punjab up to Kaithal in Haryana where it will be integrated with the national grid.

An interconnection is also planned from the project in Leh to existing Ladakh grid so as to ensure reliable power supply to the Ladakh. It will also be connected to Leh-Alusteng-Srinagar line to provide power to Jammu & Kashmir.

The project will contribute to achieving the target of 500 Giga Watt of installed electricity capacity from non-fossil fuels by the year 2030.

Left blames Israel, says attack on Gaza hospital 'horrendous war crime'

PARVEZ SULTAN @ New Delhi

THE Left parties on Wednesday condemned the attack on a hospital in war-torn Gaza that killed hundreds of people. While the Communist Party of India (CPI) termed the incident "the most inhuman and cruellest attack", the CPI-Marxist (CPM) said it was the "horrendous war crime committed by the Israeli government".

CPI general secretary D Raja said Israel is continuously violating all the norms. "CPI condemns the inhuman Israeli attack on al-Ahli Baptist Hospital in Gaza in the strongest terms. Israel is violating all norms & the hospital massacre is the cruelest attack claiming the lives of over 500 Palestinians, including women & children. This should stop!" he posted on X.

"The party appeals to the international community to stand with the Palestinians in this critical time and force Israel to halt the inhumane attacks on innocent Palestinians. The party urges the Union government led by Narendra Modi to strictly adhere to the Indian stand on Palestine agreed upon at the United Nations and not to deviate from the age-old stand of supporting Palestinian cause," Raja wrote.

>
> D Raja, CPI general secretary

The CPIM said "the bombing of a Gaza hospital late last night that had killed at least 500 Palestinians needs to be called out for what it is — a war crime. Stop this genocide."

Brinda Karat, a member of CPIM's Polit Bureau, said that the Indian government and PM Modi must take a stand against what Israel has been doing. "Israel identifying and targeting a hospital in Gaza, killing hundreds of people, is not an act of self-defence. Let's be clear about it. It is a war crime. But what is of concern for all of us here in India is the deafening silence of our government; our own PM, who seems to be equating the act of Hamas with the rights of every people of Palestine," she said.

Why is PM silent on Adani's coal bills, asks Rahul

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

CONGRESS MP Rahul Gandhi continued his criticism of the Adani business group, alleging that they artificially inflated coal import prices, resulting in higher electricity costs for the common people. He pointed to a recent Financial Times report that highlighted how Adani Group had over-invoiced coal from Indonesia.

Speaking at a press conference held at the AICC headquarters, Gandhi claimed that Adani procured coal in Indonesia at one price, but by the time it reached India, the cost had doubled. He estimated that this had cost the poorest citizens of India around ₹12,000 crore as electricity prices surged. Gandhi expressed his concern over Prime Minister Narendra Modi's silence on the matter and called for a transparent investigation to protect his credibility.

Referring to the Hindenburg report, he emphasised that the alleged financial discrepancies had risen from ₹20,000 crore to ₹32,000 crore. He pledged that if Congress came to power in 2024, they would initiate a thorough investigation into these allegations. The Opposition had been demanding a Joint Parliamentary Committee probe into the Hindenburg report's claims of fraud and stock manipulation by the Adani group.

Gandhi criticised the Securities and Exchange Board of India for not obtaining necessary documents related to the case while commending the Financial Times for their investigative efforts.

Rahul silent on graft cases against him, family: BJP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) launched a counterattack against Rahul Gandhi's criticism of the government regarding reports of inflated invoicing by the Adani Group in coal imports.

At a press conference on Wednesday, Gaurav Bhatia, the spokesperson for the BJP, emphasised that the matter involving the business conglomerate is currently before the Supreme Court.

Bhatia accused Rahul Gandhi of lacking faith in both the Constitution and the apex court due to his comments on the issue. Bhatia went further, alleging that the Gandhis are the "most corrupt" family globally.

He pointed out that Rahul Gandhi himself is on bail in the National Herald case and never addresses the corruption charges against him or the alleged wrongdoings of his brother-in-law, Robert Vadra.

Bhatia raised the issue of Karnataka minister and Congress leader Shivanand Patil being showered with currency notes in poll-bound Telangana. Patil, he said, has acknowledged that it was him in the viral video, but there has been no reaction from the Congress leadership. Patil must be immediately sacked as the continuation of such a "corrupt" minister is a threat to democracy, Bhatia said.

"On the one hand, there is an honest prime minister and the BJP serving people under his leadership. On the other hand, there is a massively corrupt Congress," Bhatia claimed.

India-France military sub-committee explores ways to strengthen defence ties

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

IN a bid to further strengthen defence relations, the India-France Military Sub Committee (MSC) held discussions for two days on October 16 and 17 at the Air Force Station in New Delhi. The meetings also coincided with the inaugural India-UK 2+2 Foreign and Defence dialogue.

"The discussions focused on new initiatives under the ambit of existing bilateral defence cooperation mechanism and strengthening of the ongoing defence engagements," Ministry of Defence said on Wednesday.

The 21st edition of military sub-committee engagement was conducted in a friendly, warm and cordial atmosphere, the ministry said. This year marks the 25th anniversary of the India-France Strategic Partnership.

"India-France Military Sub-Committee is a forum established to progress defence cooperation between both the nations through regular talks at strategic and operational levels between Integrated Defence Staff Headquarters and the Joint Staff Headquarters of French Armed Forces," the ministry said.

The meeting was co-chaired from the Indian side by Air Vice-Marshal Ashish Vohra, Assistant Chief of Integrated Staff, (Military Cooperation) at Integrated Defence Staff Headquarters, and from the French side by Major General Eric Peltier, General Officer at International Military Relations of the Joint Staff.

The inaugural India-UK 2+2 Foreign and Defence Dialogue was also held in Delhi on October 16. This was a mechanism to review all aspects of the India-UK strategic partnership. The Indian delegation was co-chaired by Piyush Srivastava, Joint Secretary Europe West, Ministry of External Affairs and Vishwesh Negi, Joint Secretary, International Cooperation, Ministry of Defence.

Strategic partnership

The defence and strategic ties between India and France have been on an upswing in the last few years. In July, India and France announced a raft of ground-breaking defence cooperation projects including the joint development of jet and helicopter engines and construction of three Scorpene submarines for the Indian Navy. The two strategic partners also expressed commitment to cooperate in the co-development and co-production of advanced defence technologies, including for the benefit of third countries.

'1 in 4 families hit by mosquito-borne diseases in 3 yrs'

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

AS India continues fighting against dengue, a survey has found that one in four families has fallen ill in the last three years due to mosquito-borne diseases and depends on mosquito repellents as civic bodies have been failing to conduct fogging.

The survey conducted by LocalCircles, a community social media platform, on 58,000 people in 327 districts, said that 73 per cent of people claimed that municipal corporations in their cities did not actively work in the past few years to prevent the spread of mosquito-borne diseases, even during the monsoon season.

Till October 17, India has reported 94,198 dengue cases and 91 deaths, as per the government data. Kerala has reported the highest number of cases at 9,770 and 37 deaths.

Very few cities, including Delhi and Mumbai, have undertaken proactive fogging measures, according to the study.

"About 28 per cent of the respondents stated that they or someone in their family fell ill due to mosquito-borne diseases in the last three years," the study said.

The data showed that 19 per cent of respondents had "multiple family members" falling ill due to vector-borne diseases, while 9 per cent stated that "one of them" fell sick during the last three years.

"The mosquito menace issue persists in India every year, and yet little is done proactively by local civic bodies to deal with it proactively," said Sachin Taparia, founder of LocalCircles.

While many states have reported dengue cases varying from 1,000 to 10,000, several cases are still going unreported as most people resort to home remedies to recover in 7-10 days, the study said.

Similarly, cases of Malaria and Chikungunya have also seen a rise in recent months.

■ Rajasthan CM Ashok Gehlot attends central election committee meet ■ Move comes after being denied Cong ticket in Rewa district of MP

Pilot skips Kharge meet to pick candidates for Raj, MP

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

With a month to go for Assembly polls, the Congress Central Election Committee (CEC) chaired by party president Mallikarjun Kharge held a meeting on Wednesday to select candidates for Rajasthan and MP polls. Though Rajasthan Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot attended the meeting, his former deputy Sachin Pilot was conspicuous by his absence. The desert state will go to polls on November 25.

After the meeting, Kharge said that the party would retain power in Rajasthan on the back of good governance in the state during the last five years. While the top Congress leadership held separate meetings for Rajasthan and Madhya Pradesh, Rahul Gandhi participated in the Rajasthan CEC but skipped the Madhya Pradesh meeting as he had to leave for Telangana.

Besides Gehlot, Rajasthan CEC was attended by AICC in-charge of state Sukhjinder Randhawa, state president Govind Dotasra, general secretary organisation K C Venugopal, state screening committee chief Gaurav Gogoi, among others.

In a post on X, Kharge said, "Savings, relief, growth, protection and upliftment, this is how Rajasthan changed due to good governance of Congress!"

"We are confident that the public will bless us again. Today an important meeting of the Central Election Committee was held on Rajasthan," he said.

Though the party has released the first list of candidates for Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh, Telangana and Mizoram, Rajasthan list is still pending. Sources attribute the delay to the rift in the Pilot and Gehlot camp over the selection of candidates. A long-running feud between Chief Minister Gehlot and Pilot was resolved recently after the intervention of the top leadership. In 2020, Pilot revolted against Gehlot with his loyals and stayed in BJP-ruled Haryana for a couple of days before returning to his state.

It was learnt that the party may drop several sitting MLAs to beat the anti-incumbency factor. Gehlot has hinted that 'winnability' will be the main factor when deciding tickets.

The party has also conducted Assembly and Lok Sabha-wise surveys to gauge the anti-incumbency factor and feedback from people on sitting MLAs. While the Congress is looking to buck the revolving door trend in Rajasthan and retain power in Madhya Pradesh, it is seeking to wrest back power from the BJP.

10 MLAs dropped in C'garh list

Congress in its second list of 53 candidates released on Wednesday, dropped 10 sitting MLAs and offered tickets to over 20 new faces for the upcoming Assembly polls in Chhattisgarh. The second list of the Congress has 10 women, 14 scheduled tribe and six scheduled caste candidates as 25 MLAs were renominated by the party. In the first list, the party had declared 30 candidates. Out of 83 seats, 18 sitting MLAs got tickets. Three ST candidates will contest from the general seat.

Setback to Cong in Vindhya as ex-Speaker's kin joins BJP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

IN a significant blow to the Congress party's prospects in the Vindhya region of Madhya Pradesh, Siddharth Tiwari, the grandson of former Vidhan Sabha speaker Sriniwas Tiwari, a prominent Brahmin leader, and son of former minister Sunderlal Tiwari, joined the ruling Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP).

This move comes after Siddharth was denied a Congress ticket for the Teonthar seat in Rewa district. The event took place in the presence of Madhya Pradesh Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan and state BJP chief VD Sharma in Bhopal.

The Tiwari family has had a decades-long association with the Congress party, but Siddharth's defection to the BJP appears to have severed these ties. While there were speculations that the Congress might consider his family members, Aruna Vivek Tiwari or Kavita Pandey, for the seat, Siddharth decided to leave the party.

Siddharth was a strong contender for the Congress ticket from the Teonthar seat, which was previously won by his grandfather Sriniwas Tiwari (famously called Safed Sher or White Tiger of MP politics)) in 1977 and 1980. However, the Congress opted for an OBC Patel candidate, Ramashankar Singh, who had lost the previous two elections to BJP candidates. The reasons behind Siddharth's denial of a Congress ticket have been attributed to the influence of former Chief Minister Arjun Singh's son, Ajay Singh Rahul, and former minister Kamleshwar Patel. This development adds a new chapter to the long-standing rivalry between the Arjun Singh and Sriniwas Tiwari families, who have been powerful Thakur and Brahmin leaders, respectively, in the Vindhya region.

Siddharth's switch to the BJP is expected to have a significant impact on Brahmin voters in the Teonthar seat and other seats with sizeable Brahmin populations, including Mangawan, Gurh, Sirmour, Deotalab, and Semaria. This is due to the continued influence of the Tiwari family in Rewa and the newly created Mauganj district.

In 2018, the BJP had a strong show in the Vindhya region, winning all eight seats in Rewa district. Siddharth's move to the BJP could hurt the Congress's prospects, especially in the Brahmin-dominated Teonthar seat, and may also lead to internal conflicts within the BJP as various candidates vie for the party ticket in the upcoming elections.

Nakul Nath faces ire

State Congress president Kamal Nath continues to be on the ruling BJP's target. The ruling party has now targeted the ex-MP CM for leaving the assembly seats of his pocket-borough Chhindwara district to be announced by his first-time local MP son Nakul Nath. Just two days back, Nath – who has been declared by Congress as the party's obvious CM face for assembly polls – had announced that for the remaining six seats of Chhindwara district, the candidates will be announced by his son Nakul in Chhindwara.

BJP doubles its membership in Valley

The abrogation of Article 370 and 35A, which granted special status and special privileges to J&K residents, has not affected the growth and reach of BJP in Kashmir. The party's membership has more than doubled in the last four years and is now around 7.5 lakhs. BJP's Kashmir spokesman Altaf Thakur said, of the total 7.5 lakh BJP members in Kashmir, 3.50 lakh members are in south Kashmir while central Kashmir stands at number 2 and north Kashmir at number 3 on membership. The doubling of BJP membership took place despite protest on scrapping special status.

Power cuts announced even as winter sets in

Even as winter is yet to set in, the authorities have issued a power curtailment schedule for Kashmir. The authorities have announced 4 and a half-hours power curtailment in metered areas and 8 hours power cut in non metered areas on a daily basis. People in the Valley complain that they were already facing lengthy power cuts and irregular electric supply after the onset of autumn. Even in summers, there was an erratic power supply. The residents complain that they were assured 24x7 power supply after installation of the smart meters. However, even after installation of smart meters, the uninterrupted power supply still remains a dream.

Guj BJP chief seeks funds for office, sparks row

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA
@ Ahmedabad

WHEN inaugurating the BJP's office in Surendranagar, Gujarat, BJP state president C R Patil publicly embarrassed BJP officials by demanding pending funds for BJP office.

Patil also announced the names of past MLAs and MPs who pledged to donate funds to build the Surendra Nagar office but did not do so. Not only that, Patil also publicly questioned leaders when the remaining cash would be deposited.

He has also requested some politicians to donate additional money to build the BJP office, while on stage. The Congress took a jibe at the state BJP president, alleging that "the BJP is now only working for money".

On Monday, Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel and Patil inaugurated the 'Shri Kamalam' office (BJP office) in Gujarat's Surendra Nagar district. On this occasion, Patil addressed the workers, saying, "This is where I said that the office should be built by BJP workers. A commitment of ₹10.50 crore was received in a single hour. I'll have to ask the CM how much of that commitment has been accomplished," he said.

Azam, wife & son get 7 years prison term in fake birth certificate case

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

IN another jolt to beleaguered senior SP leader and former MP Azam Khan, a local court of Rampur on Wednesday sentenced him, his wife Tanzeen Fatima and son Abdullah Azam Khan to seven years imprisonment each in connection with the case related to the alleged forgery of his son's birth certificate.

After the verdict, Azam Khan, his wife and son were taken into custody and sent to Rampur jail.

The case of forged birth documents of Abdullah Azam dates back to January 3, 2019, when a local resident, Akash Saxena (now BJP MLA from Rampur), submitted a complaint to police alleging that Azam Khan and his wife received two birth certificates for their son which were made through fraudulent means.

The first certificate states Abdullah was born in Rampur while the other mentions Lucknow as his birthplace. The first certificate was issued on June 28, 2012 by Rampur municipality on the basis of an oath letter submitted by Tanzeen Fatima and Azam Khan.

The second one was issued on January 21, 2015, by the Lucknow municipality based on a certificate given by Mary Hospital in Lucknow.

Abdullah is accused of using the first one for his passport and travels abroad, while the other for government records and for getting affiliation with Jauhar University.

They were convicted under Sections 420 (cheating), 467 (forgery), 468 (forgery for cheating), 471 (forged document) and 120-B (criminal conspiracy) of the IPC. Azam Khan's counsel Nasir Sultan said they would file an appeal against the judgment in the higher court.

'Being targeted'

SP chief Akhilesh Yadav claimed that Azam Khan and his family were being targeted to intimidate one particular section of the society. Since the BJP came to power in the state, 81 cases have been registered against Khan in Rampur on various charges, including land-grabbing, cheating and criminal trespass.

Border ceasefire breach: 2 BSF jawans injured in Pakistani shelling in J&K

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

IN a first major breach of February 24, 2021 border ceasefire, Pakistani Rangers targeted and attacked a Border Security Forces (BSF) outpost along the International Border (IB) in Arnia sector of Jammu and Kashmir, injuring two border guards. A BSF official said the Pakistani Rangers resorted to unprovoked firing towards BSF troops in Arnia sector of border district of Samba in J&K at around 8.23 pm on Tuesday.

The Pakistani Rangers targeted the BSF's Vikram Outpost by firing from automatic weapons. "The BSF men manning the border outpost retaliated befittingly," the BSF official said.

He said two BSF men identified as Alok Saha and Surjeet Vishwas, both residents of West Bengal, sustained bullet injuries in the Pakistani troops firing. The injured border guards were provided medical assistance at Government Medical College Jammu.

It was the first major violation of the border ceasefire that came into effect on February 24, 2021. According to defence sources, there have been two-three minor incidents of cross border firing since February 24, 2021 without causing injuries.

Border Security Force (BSF) personnel stand guard near India-Pakistan border in the Arnia sector, on the outskirts of Jammu, on Wednesday | PTI

The border ceasefire has been holding despite BSF and army foiling infiltration attempts of militants from across the Line of Control (LoC) and International Border (IB).

A security official said the Army and BSF men have been placed on maximum alert at both LoC and IB in Jammu and Kashmir after the Tuesday evening's unprovoked firing by Pakistani Rangers.

He said that security officials have been told to give befitting response to any border ceasefire violation by the Pakistani troops and "not hold back".

The border residents are living a normal life after the February 24, 2021 India-Pakistan border ceasefire pack. The border residents have even resumed farming near the border without any fear of cross-border firing and shelling.

Before the February 21, 2021 border ceasefire agreement, there used to be near daily cross border firing and shelling at the LoC and IB, forcing the border residents to leave their homes and move to safer places.

According to Defence ministry data, four soldiers were killed in 2021 in cross border firing and shelling before the ceasefire pact.

Basmati prices dip as export curbs deter traders

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

BASMATI PRICE

Basmati price fall to	Last year prices went up to
₹3,200 per qunital	₹4,000 a qunital

EXPORT CURBS

Minimum export price	Average MEP for last 3 years
$1,200 per tonne	$850 per tonne

EXPORTS IN A NUTSHELL

Total basmati exports in FY23 ₹48,000 crore

Punjab's share ₹15,000cr

Haryana's share ₹18,000cr

PRICES of basmati rice (fine quality aromatic rice) has declined to ₹ 3,200 per quintal as exporters in Punjab and Haryana stopped purchasing the grain a week ago from the market after Union government decided to maintain minimum export price (MEP) at $1,200 per tonne.

Punjab and Haryana are the major basmati rice exporters. In the last financial year, their exports were to the tune of ₹33,000 crore while the total bastmati rice shipments from India stood at ₹48,000 crore.

According to exporters, international orders are now going to Pakistan.

The Centre on August 25 imposed minimum export price of $1,200 per tonne on basmati exports, causing concern among exporters.

After repeated requests, Union minister Piyush Goyal on September 25 indicated lowering minimum export price to $850 per tonne, they said.

The Department of Food and Public Distribution, under the Ministry of Consumer Affairs and Food and Public Distribution, last week, however, issued a fresh circular extending the registration-cum-allocation certificate for basmati rice beyond October 15.

This prompted exporters to stop purchasing basmati from farmers, causing prices to decline.

Prices of Basmati 1,509 and 1,718 varieties have dropped by ₹500 per quintal since last week.

Ashok Sethi, director, Punjab Rice Millers and Exports Association, said: "After the Central government in late August decided not to allow exports of basmati rice below $1,200 per tonne, we held negotiations with the government last month and were given an assurance that the decision will be reviewed and the price could be around $850."

"Last week, we came to know that the minimum export price of $1,200 will continue till further orders," Sethi added.

"So we stopped purchasing basmati from the farmers as we already have huge stocks and the rates fell to around ₹3,200 per quintal while last year it had touched ₹4,000 per quintal," he explained.

"Exporters in Pakistan are going to benefit as till last year we were selling basmati between $700-1,200 in international market as that is the rate as this fine-quality aromatic rice is sold in middle-east countrie.

Vijay Setia, former president of All-India Rice Exporters Association, said: "The average minimum export price for last three years comes to $850. Now due to rice restriction, Pakistan booked intentional orders at $950-1,000 as they also grow the same basamati."

He goes on to add, "Through satellite imagery, we came to know that Pakistani doubled their basmati growing area and now it grow approximately 15 lakh tonnes. Due to the price restriction, the Indian exporters returned empty-handed from to recent international food fairs held at Istanbul (Turkey) and Irbil in Iraq, as international buyers turned to Pakistan. We have already given Pakistan a 45-day window for sales."

Maha LS poll battle: BJP sees red after Shinde seeks 22 seats, Ajit Pawar 11

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

A tug of war has started in the three-party alliance Maha Yuti over seat-sharing for 2024 Lok Sabha election, with each partner demanding significant numbers of seats.

Maharashtra has a total of 48 Lok Sabha seats. Chief Minister Eknath Shinde-led Shiv Sena has demanded 22 seats, while deputy chief minister Ajit Pawar's NCP is seeking 11 seats. The third alliance partner BJP has 22 MPs in the current Lok Sabha.

BJP leader and Maharashtra deputy chief minister Devendra Fadnavis said that no talk on seat-sharing has started with alliance partners.

He said that no one has put any demand so far.

"We will have discussion over seat-sharing with alliance partners and whatever seats are decided that will be given to them. There is no fight and clashes over seat-sharing," Fadnavis said.

Earlier, BJP and Shiv Sena (Shinde) had held discussions on seat-sharing for Lok Sabha where Shinde's Sena had demanded 22 seats as its current Shiv Sena Lok Sabha MPs are from Shiv Sena.

"United Shiv Sena had won the 18 Lok Sabha seats and lost four candidates by close margin, so Shiv Sena should be given a total 22 seats in Maharashtra as per our strength. Out of total 18 Lok Sabha MPs, the majority MPs are with us. It is our right to get the maximum seats. We have put our demand, now BJP has to decide," said senior Shiv Sena leader of Eknath Shinde-led faction, requesting anonymity.

A senior BJP leader said his party is the single largest party with 105 MLAs, and with their support, the party with 41 MLAs have Eknath Shinde as the chief minister, while another party with the same number of MLAs' support have Ajit Pawar as deputy chief minister.

"If Shinde gets 22 seats, and Ajit Pawar-led NCP gets 11 seats, then how many seats are remaining for BJP? Seventeen seats in total 48 Lok Sabha seats? Currently, we have 22 Lok Sabha MPs and the alliance partners are asking to contest only 17. How is it possible?" asked the BJP leader.

'Only 17 seats for BJP'

A senior BJP leader said his party is the single largest party with 105 MLAs. "If Shinde gets 22 seats, while Ajit Pawar-led NCP gets 11 seats, then how many seats are remaining for BJP? Seventeen seats in total 48 Lok Sabha seats? Currently, we have 22 LS MPs and alliance partners are asking to contest only 17. How is it possible?" asked the BJP leader.

■ Resolution calling for humanitarian pause gets backing of 12 of 15 UN Security Council members; US says it makes no mention of Israel's right of self defence

■ Protesters put pressure on Arab governments to act to stop Israeli attacks on Palestinians; war now in a dangerous phase, warns Jordan's King Abdullah II

U.S. VETOES UNSC RESOLUTION CALLING ISRAEL TO PAUSE ATTACKS

BLAST AT GAZA HOSPITAL

This is what is known about Tuesday's deadly blast at a hospital in Gaza City

In the dark of early evening in Gaza, reports emerged of an explosion at Gaza City's al-Ahli hospital. Al-Ahli was crowded both with victims of 10 days of Israeli airstrikes and with families and others who have taken refuge on hospital grounds

Video that The Associated Press confirmed as being from the hospital showed an orange ball of fire and flames engulfing the building and grounds

The video showed the outside of the hospital, where countless Palestinian families had been camping out. Torn bodies covered the grass, with slain children lying among dead adults

Gaza's Hamas-run Health Ministry blamed an Israeli airstrike, and said it killed at least 500 people

Israeli authorities soon after denied involvement, saying a misfired Palestinian rocket appeared to blame

Outraged over the hospital blast, Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas and Jordan's King Abdullah II announced they were pulling out of a planned Arab summit Wednesday with President Joe Biden

The White House and Jordan's government announced within hours of the attack that Biden's meeting with Arab leaders was off

Jordan, Syria, Saudi Arabia, Iraq, Egypt and other Arab nations condemned the hospital attack

Protests erupted in some Arab cities

NEW YORK

THE United States vetoed a UN Security Council resolution on Wednesday calling for a "humanitarian pause" in the raging Israel-Hamas conflict as the text did not respect Israel's right to defend itself, the US ambassador said.

Twelve out of 15 Council members voted in favour of the resolution put forward by Brazil and negotiated over several days, while Russia and the United Kingdom abstained.

The United States was the only vote against it, but as one of the body's five permanent members, its vote counts as a veto. "The United States is disappointed this resolution made no mention of Israel's rights of self-defence," US Ambassador to the UN Linda Thomas-Greenfield said after the vote.

For a resolution to be adopted in the Council, it must receive at least 9 votes in favour and not a single veto from any of the five permanent members.

The resolution said the Security Council "firmly condemns all violence and hostilities against civilians and all acts of terrorism."

It said the body "unequivocally rejects and condemns the heinous terrorist attacks by Hamas... and the taking of hostages."

The text also "urges all parties to fully comply with their obligations under international law." The vote comes after the Security Council on Monday rejected a Russian resolution condemning spiraling violence in West Asia.

That resolution did not single out Hamas for its surprise attack on Israel on October 7, and it was rejected by permanent members — the United States, the United Kingdom and France, as well as Japan.

The assault on Israel left at least 1,400 people dead and saw Hamas militants take 199 people hostage.

Israel has retaliated with air strikes that have now claimed the lives of 3,478 people, according to health officials.

Meanwhile, Israel said on Wednesday that it will allow Egypt to deliver limited quantities of humanitarian aid to the Gaza Strip. Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's office said the decision was approved in light of a request from US President Joe Biden. In a statement, it said it "will not thwart" deliveries of food, water and medicine, as long as the supplies do not reach Hamas. Egypt's Rafah crossing has only a limited capacity, and Egypt says it has been damaged by Israeli airstrikes. AFP

US goes after Hamas with sanctions

NEW YORK

THE US announced sanctions on Wednesday against a group of 10 Hamas members and the Palestinian militant organization's financial network across Gaza, Sudan, Turkey, Algeria and Qatar as it responds to the surprise attack on Israel that left more than 1,000 people dead or kidnapped.

Targeted for sanctions by the Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control are members who manage a Hamas investment portfolio, a Qatar-based financial facilitator with close ties to the Iranian regime, a key Hamas commander and a Gaza-based virtual currency exchange.

Treasury Secretary Janet Yellen said the US "is taking swift and decisive action to target Hamas's financiers and facilitators following its brutal and unconscionable massacre of Israeli civilians, including children."

"The US Treasury has a long history of effectively disrupting terror finance and we will not hesitate to use our tools against Hamas," she said. AFP

Synagogue in Germany attacked with firebombs

BERLIN

A Berlin synagogue was attacked with Molotov cocktails early Wednesday as antisemitic incidents in the German capital have been rising following the violent escalation in West Asia. The Kahal Adass Jisroel community said its synagogue in the city's Mitte neighbourhood was attacked with two incendiary devices. Police confirmed the incident.

"Unknown persons threw two Molotov cocktails from the street," the community wrote on X, formerly Twitter. It also posted video footage of police officers investigating the scene in front of the synagogue that was cordoned off.

The building complex of the Kahal Adass Jisroel community in the centre of Berlin houses a synagogue, a kindergarten and a community centre.

Police also said there were riots overnight between Muslim immigrants and police in the city's Neukoelln and Kreuzberg neighbourhoods and at Berlin's landmark Brandenburg Gate in which several officers were injured.

Synagogue of the Kahal Adass Jisroel Jewish community in Berlin

Following Hamas' brutal attack on Israel on Oct 7 and the subsequent war in Gaza, police have increased security for Jewish institutions in Berlin and all over Germany. Still, Israeli flags that were flown as a sign of solidarity in front of city halls all over the country have been torn down and burnt. Several buildings in Berlin where Jews live had the star of David painted on doors and walls

Meanwhile, a Jewish school complex in the centre of Rome was evacuated on Wednesday as part of a security exercise, police said — after previously saying there had been a bomb threat. Agencies

Anger against Israel across W Asia after hosp blast

CAIRO

WITHIN hours after a blast was said to have killed hundreds at a Gaza hospital, protesters hurled stones at Palestinian security forces in the occupied West Bank and at riot police in neighbouring Jordan, venting fury at their leaders for failing to stop the carnage.

"This war, which has entered a dangerous phase, will plunge the region into an unspeakable disaster," warned King Abdullah II of Jordan.

In the Israeli-occupied West Bank, which has been under lockdown since a bloody October 7 rampage by Hamas militants ignited the war, protesters clashed with Palestinian security forces and called for the overthrow of Abbas, who is widely seen by Palestinians as a corrupt and autocratic accomplice to Israel's military occupation of the West Bank.

Jordan, long considered a bastion of stability in the region, has seen mass protests in recent days. Late Tuesday, pro-Palestinian protesters tried to storm the Israeli Embassy.

"They are all normalising Arab rulers, none of them are free, the free ones are all dead!" one protester shouted. "Arab countries are unable to do anything!" Protests also erupted in Lebanon, where Hezbollah has traded fire with Israeli forces at the border, threatening to enter the war with its massive arsenal of rockets. "The Arab street has a voice. That voice may have been ignored in the past by governments in the region and the West, but they cannot do this anymore," said Badr al-Saif, a history professor. "People are on fire," he said.

FRENCH AIRPORTS EVACUATED OVER THREAT

Paris: Airports across France were evacuated on Wednesday after emailed "threats of attack", a police source told AFP, the latest in a series of similar alerts. The Palace of Versailles, a major tourist attraction outside Paris, was evacuated for the third time since Saturday for bomb disposal teams to check the site. France is on high alert following Hamas's October 7 attack on Israel and Friday's fatal stabbing of a teacher in the northern city of Arras by a man claiming allegiance to the Islamic State group. Meanwhile, Britain's domestic MI5 spy agency chief has warned the current conflict in Gaza increases UK terror risk, singling out Iran as a cause for concern. He was speaking to British media at a summit in the US attended by its intelligence chiefs and counterparts from Canada, Australia and New Zealand

Market falls as oil price rises, crisis in West Asia deepens

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

DOMESTIC equity market reeled under severe selling pressure on Wednesday as geopolitical tensions in West Asia worsened following a hospital blast in Gaza, which killed about 500 people.

There are serious concerns now that the conflict between Israel and Hamas may develop into a bigger regional crisis in the Gulf and push oil prices higher. Brent oil prices rose sharply by 3% on Wednesday to $92.30 per barrel.

If the oil prices continue to go up, it will jolt many nations, including India, efforts to bring down the inflation rate. This will also prompt the central banks to maintain a hawkish stance on future interest rate hikes and prompt investors to turn to safer assets, a big negative for equities worldwide.

> The market is more concerned about surging crude oil prices as this could hurt inflation and may lead to interest rates remaining higher in the near to medium term
>
> Shrikant Chouhan, research head at Kotak Securities

Benchmark indices BSE Sensex shed 551 points to settle at 65,877 while the NSE Nifty50 closed at 19,671, down 141 points. Investors lost ₹2.4 lakh crore on Wednesday as the market capitalisation of the firms listed on the BSE came down to ₹321.4 lakh crore from Rs 323.8 lakh crore in the previous session.

Shrikant Chouhan, head of research (Retail) at Kotak Securities said geopolitical tensions in the Middle East due to the raging war between Israel and Hamas spooked Indian markets as investors turned risk-off and hammered stocks at will.

"The market is more concerned about surging crude oil prices as this could hurt inflation and may lead to interest rates remaining higher in the near to medium term. Already the market is facing FII money exodus from the domestic market and re-routing the funds into safe-haven assets like gold and the US dollar," said Chouhan. FIIs sold (net sales) equities worth ₹1,832 crore on Wednesday.

Besides the conflict tensions, a dull show by IT companies in Q2FY24 and the hardening of bond yields took investors away from the equities. IT major Wipro on Wednesday reported flat growth in profit and revenue.

Shares of Bajaj Finance (down 2.95%), Bajaj Finserv (down 1.85%) and NTPC (down 1.46%) fell most in the Nifty50 index. As many as 39 stocks in the Nifty ended in the red. Cipla (up 3.50%) and Dr. Reddy's Laboratories (up 2.18%) were the top gainers in the Nifty pack.

Wipro profit, revenue drop; headcount falls

Attrition rate on a last-twelve-month basis stood at 15.5%, company plans to pay 80% variable pay to employees

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

THE fourth-largest IT services company Wipro on Wednesday reported a marginal drop in both its second quarter net profit and revenue amid economic weakness and lower discretionary spends by clients.

It missed Street estimates and reported 0.47% year-on-year decrease in net profit at ₹2,646.3 crore compared to ₹2,659 crore in the same quarter last year. Sequentially, its net profit was down by 7.8%.

The company's second quarter revenues too decreased as the company reported ₹22,516 crore revenue from operations, a decrease of 0.1% from ₹22,539.7 crore it reported a year-ago. Operating margin for the quarter stood at 16.1%.

For the upcoming third quarter (Q3), Wipro expects its revenue from the IT services business segment to be in the range of $2,617 million to $2,672 million. This is a decline ranging from -3.5% to -1.5% in constant currency terms.

"We are winning in the market against the backdrop of economic weakness. The business environment has been uncertain and inflation has stayed high... Lower discretionary spending is reality today and conversion of order booking has become slower," Thierry Delaporte, chief executive officer and managing director, Wipro, said.

Clients are continuing to take a much more rigorous look at their investments. However, the company is witnessing a surge in active generative AI projects.

Talking about the company's ai360 strategy, the CEO said since their announcement last quarter, they have trained 180,000 employees in basic Gen AI principles.

"We are very rapidly integrating Gen Ai into our processes, solutions and offerings. Our teams are seeing significant productivity gains by using AI," he said.

Delaporte added that Gen AI is being used in marketing for content generation and translation and in the HR function for candidate background verification.

Also, on Wednesday, the company announced that the Board of Directors has given the approval for the merger of five units - Wipro HR Services, Wipro Overseas IT Services, Wipro Technology Product Services, Wipro Trademarks Holding Limited and Wipro VLSI Design Services India Private Limited- with itself.

Like its rivals, Wipro is also reducing its headcount, and this quarter, the IT services company saw a decline of 5,051 employees compared to the previous quarter. Attrition on a last-twelve-month basis stood at 15.5%.

As far as campus hiring is concerned, Chief Human Resources Officer Saurabh Govil said they would first honour all offers they have already made. Wipro also plans to pay 80% variable pay to employees.

Govt detects ₹1.36 lakh cr GST evasion in FY24

THE GST department has detected ₹1.36 lakh crore of tax evasion so far in 2023-24, according to a government statement.

After the detection of evasion, the culprits have voluntarily paid ₹14,108 crore in taxes.

In a statement issued by the ministry of finance, the Director General of GST Intelligence has so far detected more than 6,000 fake ITC cases involving more than Rs. 57,000 crore GST evasion from April 2020 to September 2023. As many as 500 persons have been arrested in cases of fake input tax credit. As per the finance ministry, since June 2023, DGGI has laid emphasis on identifying and apprehending masterminds and disrupting syndicates, operating across the country. The department has been using data analysis with the help of advanced technical tools to unearth cases of massive evasion.

"These tax syndicates often use gullible persons and entice them with job, commission, bank loan etc to extract their KYC documents, which were then used for creation of fake companies without their knowledge and consent. In some cases, KYCs were used with the knowledge of the concerned person by paying them small pecuniary benefits," said the ministry.

Warner 'frustrated' at DRS decision: Report

Australia's David Warner is 'annoyed' and 'frustrated' at the DRS call which went against him in his side's match against Sri Lanka and has called for more "accountability" in the system, according to a report. In the match, which Australia won by five wickets, Warner fell LBW to Sri Lanka pacer Dilshan Madushanka.

He's (Kohli) a special batsman, probably the best batsman in the modern era. I think I'm lucky to get him out five times. It will give me great pleasure, taking his wicket.
— Shakib Al Hasan, Bangladesh captain

MUDDLE IN THE MIDDLE

One of the main themes of the World Cup has been sensational collapses in the middle-overs. Cricketer-turned-pundit, Abhinav Mukund, explains why to Gomesh S

IN the lead up to the World Cup, one of the points was how this tournament could be won in the middle-overs (10-40). Especially with the bat.

What has happened is rather interesting. Instead of seeing teams dominate the phase with the bat, there is a trend of sides losing wickets in clusters during the middle-overs. And it is not restricted to one team. Australia lost the plot against India in Chennai after Steve Smith got out. Pakistan, again versus India, once Babar Azam was dismissed. England lost wickets in a cluster against Afghanistan and so did Sri Lanka against Australia. Is there a common thread that connects these collapses? Do teams collapse trying to aim high? Or do they get stuck trying to consolidate and fail at accelerating?

Evidently, there is more than one reason for it. India cricketer and commentator Abhinav Mukund feels that one cannot generalise a phase of the game. In the England-Afghanistan game, he believes that it was probably a culmination of England trying to go too hard, conceding way too many than they should have and not playing the right personnel for the conditions that were not on offer. "The one thing you can say is that the sustained pressure you have in the ODI format is more than the T20 format because bowlers get to bowl only one or two overs together at a time. Sometimes, the sustained pressure is resulting in wickets," Abhinav tells this daily.

A cricket nerd who looks at data and analyses the sport at the micro level, the former Tamil Nadu captain believes the trend that one can see is not just numerical. "(In T20s) you are not going to walk into bat when there is a bowler on top when he has already picked up two wickets or the team is under pressure and you have sustain for a longer period of time. I think that is something that's possibly slowly dying in terms of the approach of the batter," he says.

Meanwhile, Abhinav also recognises the tactical aspect to what is happening as well. Referring to the game between Netherlands and South Africa, he notes how Scott Edwards was keen on getting Quinton de Kock out and persisted with two off-spinners (Aryan Dutt and Colin Ackermann) from both ends. Once he got de Kock, Edwards brought on Roelof van der Merwe and Paul van Meekeran. "In a World Cup there is a lot more at stake. Netherlands didn't have too much to lose." He cites one example to drive home the point. "The numbers suggest that Babar has been dismissed by off-spinners and that is the numerical evidence you have in front of you. There are a lot of teams that may not to play an offie against Pakistan because they are a team stacked with right-handers. Netherlands chose to bowl Aryan Dutt against him (De Kock) and they got him out. They were having sheets and sheets of plans which they were trying to execute. It is fun to watch. It is an analyst's dream in terms of going with a particular plan and executing it. There are a lot of captains who feel a gut feel is very important and instinct is so important despite having the data behind you. They took it to another level. But where Netherlands get exposed is sometimes they get out skilled. When they get out skilled, they can't do much," he says.

Babar Azam | AFP

This World Cup is a long tournament where teams play across different conditions. That comes with its own challenges to adapt. Add to that the baggage and fatigue of travel, how can teams avoiding losing wickets in clusters during the middle-overs? "By playing good cricket," laughs Abhinav before adding, "I don't think a lot of teams have the answer. In the past, you consolidate for 15-20 balls, that is what India have been doing really well. Even in a collapse, I felt Virat Kohli or KL Rahul or Shreyas Iyer, whoever comes in, are taking the time at the start instead of going 'bang bang'. Even New Zealand for that matter. They played their cricket in that way only and that might possibly be suiting them."

MID-INNINGS CRISIS

THERE HAVE BEEN QUITE A FEW MIDDLE-OVER COLLAPSES SO FAR IN THIS EDITION OF THE WORLD CUP, A LOOK AT HOW THEY HAPPENED....

AUSTRALIA 110/2 TO 190/7 VS INDIA, CHENNAI

When Steve Smith and Marnus Labuschagne were chuntering along, it seemed like all was well with the way Australia were batting. Ravindra Jadeja got Smith and that triggered a collapse. From 110/2, Australia slumped to 140/7 before being bundled out for 199 at the MA Chidambaram Stadium. None of the Australian middle-order batters, who are known for their big-hitting, were able to take the attack to the Indian spinners.

SRI LANKA 157/1 TO 209 ALL OUT VS AUSTRALIA, LUCKNOW

Kusal Perera was batting like a dream. He was picking boundaries off every Australian bowler. It seemed like Sri Lanka were going to do a South Africa against Australia. Until Pat Cummins found the gap between Perera's bat and pad to send him packing. What followed was a collapse that is humorous even by Sri Lankan standards. Barring Charith Asalanka, everyone fell like a pack of cards as Sri Lanka lost their last nine wicket for 52 runs.

PAKISTAN 155/2 TO 191 VS INDIA, AHMEDABAD

Wicketkeeper-batter Mohammad Rizwan and skipper Babar Azam were taking singles, moving along as Pakistan crossed 150-run mark with both nearing fifties. The latter even celebrated it. Then a momentary lapse of concentration against Mohammed Siraj and Azam was back in the pavilion. Kuldeep Yadav struck twice, Jasprit Bumrah produced some magic and out of nowhere Pakistan were out of the contest. They were all out of 191, losing eight wickets for just 36 runs.

ENGLAND 91/3 TO 138/6 VS AFGHANISTAN, NEW DELHI

At 91/3 while chasing 285, with Jos Buttler and Harry Brook in the middle, England looked in a comfortable position. Little did anyone know what was to come. Buttler was cleaned up by Naveen-ul-Haq and that opened the floodgates. All of a sudden Brook was waging lone battle. Once he got out, it was all over for the defending champions.

Meekeren by name, strong by nature: Paul's touch

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @ Chennai

THE gameplan during the mid-innings break for Netherlands was easy. Bowling coach Ryan van Niekerk had debriefed the bowlers on how the pitch was behaving. Cross-seamers was going to be a big option. As a few deliveries were skidding off the strip while there was also some bounce, Paul van Meekeren knew what he had to do. "He (Van Niekerk) had seen some skid through while the wicket also had some bounce... for me, it was a matter of hitting the wicket hard on the right length," he told this daily on Wednesday morning.

He got one to move slightly inward and skid through to castle Aiden Markram. A very similar delivery broke through Marco Jansen's defence. The former broke South Africa's spine. The latter broke their resistance. His 2/40, in a nutshell, had helped the side to one of their greatest wins, ranking alongside the win over England in the T20 World Cup in 2009.

While his Orange jersey illuminated under the cold Dharamsala lights on Tuesday night, it didn't take long to wonder the pacer's behind the scenes work to ensure he was playing for the national team in the first place. When Netherlands were playing in the qualifying event in Zimbabwe in June-July, Van Meekeren had made himself unavailable. It was a logical choice to make; a county gig with Gloucestershire paid his bills so he needed that more.

But a sparkling performance in the domestic One-Day Cup in August-September put him in contention. His 17 wickets for the county was the highest and it helped them qualify for the semifinals. "Once the team qualified, I hoped to make the team," he said. "I knew that making myself not available for Zimbabwe would make it tough to get into the team. But I think my 50-over campaign with Gloucester, in which I took a good amount of wickets, was a key reason to pick me."

Van Meekeren's role is to come in as first or second change in this side and being one of the designated wicket-takers in the middle overs. That's what he did on Tuesday. After coming in as second change, he removed Markram before accounting for Jansen in his next spell.

It's understandable why Netherlands 'celebrated a little' after the match but they had their game faces on at the breakfast table on Wednesday morning. "Of course, we were happy but also realistic," he said.

New Zealand players celebrate a wicket in their match against Afghanistan at the MA Chidambaram Stadium, Chennai on Wednesday | P RAVIKUMAR

Phillips lights up as NZ post 4th win

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @ Chennai

NEW ZEALAND seem to be unstoppable at the moment.

Up against Afghanistan in the ongoing ODI World Cup at the MA Chidambaram Stadium under lights here on Wednesday, the Kiwis put up a polished display to post a 149-run victory, their fourth successive win. Now, they are deservedly top of the points table with eight points. Riding on half-centuries by Will Young (54), Tom Latham (68) and Glenn Phillips (71), the Black Caps posted 288/6 on a tricky wicket.

Later, their bowlers did their task to the T to bundle out Afghanistan for just 139 runs. Trent Boult (2/18), Lockie Ferguson (3/19) and spinner Mitchell Santner (3/39) were on point as Afghanistan batters toiled.

It was a massive victory but it was not spotless. In the first innings, the Kiwis were in a spot of bother at 110 for 4. However, Tom Latham, stand-in skipper in the absence of Kane Williamson, and Glenn Phillips steadied the ship before going on to forge an impressive partnership of 144 runs off 153 balls. Both played to the merit of the ball and never shied away from taking quick singles. Eventually, that helped them post a competitive score.

Phillips hit as many as four sixes to entertain the crowd. His innings came to an end while trying to up the run rate. He fell to Naveen-ul-Haq. Latham was also dismissed by the same bowler later on. Phillips was pleased with their effort. During their chase, Afghanistan were on the backfoot as soon as their openers, Rahmanullah Gurbaz and Ibrahim Zadran, fell within the seventh over.

Brief scores: NZ 288/6 in 50 ovs (Phillips 71, Latham 68, Young 54; Naveen-ul-Haq 2/48) bt Afghanistan 139 in 34.4 ovs (Rahmat 36, Azmatullah 27; Ferguson 3/19, Santner 3/39).

Rohit & Co set to get high on strong unit

GOMESH S @ Pune

WHEN it comes to rivalries in cricket, especially in the Asian subcontinent, the narrative has largely revolved around India and Pakistan. Bangladesh, for years, have tried to punch above their weight, to compete equally with the other three Asian teams that include Sri Lanka as well. Over the past decade, Bangladesh have constantly tried to push themselves to their limits, and even caused upsets, especially against subcontinental teams. They have their own kind of rivalries against each Asian team. This often tends to bring out the best, and sometimes, even their the worst. When it is against India, Bangladesh somehow managed to come together as a unit and pull off the improbable.

At another level, it can be considered a heist because the Shakib Al Hasan-led side's three win in the last four matches came when some of India's key bowlers were missing. Whether it was Jasprit Bumrah or Kuldeep Yadav in last December or when most of the top players were rested during the Asia Cup, Bangladesh haven't played a full-fledged India team since the 2019 World Cup clash. In that Birmingham contest, Rohit Sharma scored a century and India won by 28 runs.

Having a full strength bowling unit is a boon to the team and bowling coach Paras Mhambrey in particular. Speaking ahead of the clash against Bangladesh at the Maharashtra Cricket Association Stadium here, the bowling coach said that the last couple of years had been tough without the services of Bumrah, who was sidelined due to back injury.

"It is tough to miss someone like Bumrah," he said. "You have seen him in the last three games that he has played. What he brings to the table — he is a world class bowler. He gives you that breakthrough that you require in the power plays. He is well adapted to bowl in the middle overs and he's a top gun dead-over bowler."

What Bumrah's comeback meant is that someone like Mohammed Shami is sitting out and so is R Ashwin depending on the combination the team wants to play. Though it definitely is a tough decision to keep bowlers like them out, the bowling coach said that the players have been told about their roles and when their services will be needed. As for the track record against Bangladesh or how they would handle it should things go South, the coach was diplomatic. "India are focusing on what they want to do and not on the opponents, Bangladesh, is what he said.

Bangladesh's is a different but quirky story. For the nation, cricket and chaos often go hand in hand, like the one before the World Cup involving Tamim Iqbal-Shakib, who had a fallout with Shakib.

Coming to this game, they do have a genuine concern. They have lost two games after winning the first one against Afghanistan. What more, their captain and the most important player, Shakib, is still recovering from a quad injury he picked up during the game against Kiwis in Chennai.

While Shakib did bat on Tuesday, he was taken for a scan on Wednesday. "He had a good batting session yesterday and did a little bit of running between the wickets. We did a scan today, so we are waiting for the results. At the moment he is okay. We haven't tried bowling him yet. So, he will come tomorrow morning and we will assess him again and then make a decision," said Bangladesh head coach Chandika Hathurusingha.

CAN B'DESH CAUSE HEADACHE TO INDIA?

After losing back-to-back games, Shakib's men will take on India in Pune. A look...

B'desh spin vs India top-order

Yes, for Bangladesh spinners to make an impact, the pacers should give breakthroughs. But should they do, in Mehidy Hasan Miraz and Shakib Al Hasan, Bangladesh have some quality spinners to trouble India batters at the Maharashtra Cricket Stadium, Pune.

What to expect in Pune?

Known for its high-scoring encounters, the Pune pitch could not be any different this time around as well. And given the way India are batting, they would not probably mind it. The challenge for Bangladesh will ensuring that they bat well to put on a good total or chase it. For, the bowling department does the job more often than not.

Thohir's change of plan was detailed in a statement on the Indonesian federation website hours before an online meeting of the Asian Football Confederation.

Kane hits double as England seal Euro 2024 berth

AGENCIES @ London

ENGLAND booked their place at Euro 2024 as Harry Kane's double inspired an impressive fightback to beat holders Italy 3-1 at Wembley on Tuesday. Needing a point to be certain of qualifying for next year's tournament in Germany, Gareth Southgate's side fell behind to Gianluca Scamacca's early goal. But, fuelled by a superb display from Real Madrid midfielder Jude Bellingham, England hit back to equalise before the break through Kane's penalty.

Bellingham had won the spot-kick with a typically thrusting run and the 20-year-old prodigy was also the catalyst for Marcus Rashford's decisive strike after the interval. Underlining his own importance to the England cause, Kane struck again in the closing stages to give the skipper his 61st goal for the Three Lions.

With two group games still to play, unbeaten England, winners of five of their six qualifiers, are guaranteed to finish top of Group C. "This was the toughest qualifying group with the seedings. We've performed really well," Southgate said. "The players are incredible to work with, so hungry, so eager to learn, so together.

Messi hits two

MONTEVIDEO: Lionel Messi scored two goals as Argentina extended their perfect start to South American qualifiers for the 2026 World Cup on Tuesday with a 2-0 victory over Peru.

The Inter Miami star took his international goal tally to 106 with strikes in the 32nd and 42nd minutes at Lima's Estadio Nacional. Messi's first-half brace left reigning world champions Argentina on top of the South American qualifying table with 12 points from four games, five points clear of Uruguay, Brazil and Venezuela, who all have seven points.

YOU will rarely come across anyone who travels to the North of the country and not think about spending at least a couple of days in Delhi. And this does not come as a surprise since there is so much to explore in the city — shopping, visiting various historical monuments and most of all, exploring the diverse street food. Now, any food trail in Delhi will always be incomplete without heading to Old Delhi or Purani Dilli, as it is still affectionately known. If bazaars, shopping and most importantly, good food is what tickles your interest, then old fortified city is home to some of the most iconic eateries in the country. If you are someone who has not been to Old Delhi for its food but plans to do so, read on for a food trail you will not regret. We present to you the Beginners Food Trail of Old Delhi — the best way to start your journey into this culinary paradise.

An early morning breakfast at Old Delhi is always a calm affair. Seeing the deserted lanes, which are usually chaotic and having mouth-watering food is an experience in itself. You can start off from the area around the Jama Masjid, where you will come across multiple spots serving hot puris along with sabzi and halwa. That combination already seems delicious, no? Following this hearty-start, your next stop should be the famous Paranthe Wali Gali in Chandni Chowk. Hop on a nearby tuk-tuk and they will drop you off at the right spot. Everyone knows it, fret not. Pandit Gaya Prasad shifted to Delhi from Agra in search of a better life. He opened a single shop selling hot paranthas. The bread became so popular that his family members started helping him and eventually the place came to be known as Paranthe Wali Gali. You can try various varieties of paranthes such as karela parantha, dal aloo parantha, lemon parantha, mewa parantha and lots more at the Baburam Paranthewala in Paranthe Wali Gali.

The next spot is just around 300 metres away. It's Natraj Dahi Bhalla. Operating since 1940, the shop only sells two items — Aloo Tikki (deep fried potato cutlets served with tangy sauce) and Dahi Bhalle (ground lentil balls served with curd). The dahi bhalla is fluffy and served with red tamarind chutney. A walk of another 300 metres and you arrive at your next destination — Old Famous Jalebi Wala. Opened in 1884, the eatery is known for serving hot piping and crispy jalebis. What makes them different is the use of pure desi ghee and khandsari sugar syrup and that's what makes people come back again and again.

By now, it will be time for lunch and we would suggest you head to Kake Di Hatti. Situated roughly around 1.2 kilometres away from the Jalebi Wala, it is one of Delhi's most iconic restaurants since 1942. They specialise in a variety of naans like Palak Paneer and Corn Naan, Stuffed Chur Chur Naan, Chocolate Naan and lots more. You can pair these naans with delicacies like Amritsari Tawa Paneer, Paneer Butter Masala, Dal Makhani, Dal Tadka and more. This vegetarian foodie destination is a must try during your visit. Following this hearty meal, you don't have to look far for dessert. Just next door is Giani's Di Hatti, operating since 1956. If there is one dessert we would recommend without an inch of doubt, it will be their Rabri Falooda. Sprinkled with crunchy nuts, its first bite is enough to win you over.

We know, by this time, you won't be left with an inch of space in your tummy, but in case, just in case, you still have some room, Cool Point Shahi Tukda near Jama Masjid is a must visit. You will have to get on a tuk-tuk for this because the place is about a couple of kilometres from Gian's Di Hatti. The place specialises in Mughlai desserts, so Shahi Tukda, Kheer, Badam Milk and Rabri are their offerings, along with a couple of flavours of ice-creams. Pair the shahi tukda with a scoop of vanilla ice-cream and you will instantly fall in love with it. The contrasting temperatures complement each other perfectly.

By this time, you will have covered some of the most iconic spots in Old Delhi and probably made your decision if it was worth it. You can head back home or if you are still left with some energy, feel free to go around and do some shopping. We have heard Old Delhi has some of the best shops selling local perfumes, attars.

Celebrating Dussehra with a difference at Kullu

This 400-year-old legacy celebration begins after Dussehra festivities end across the country

THE countdown has begun for the world-famous Kullu Dussehra celebrations that are believed to have started in the 17th century when the ruler, Raja Jagat Singh, installed an idol of Lord Raghunath to remove a curse and seek his blessings.

Kullu Dussehra celebrations — which begin on Vijaya Dashami, the day Dussehra ends in the rest of the country — lasts for a week. This time, the festivities, an amalgamation of Hindu and local pahari traditions, are being held from October 24 to 30.

Organisers said that this time there will be a departure from tradition. For the first time apart from the annual Rath Yatra that is taken out throughout Kullu town, there will also be a colourful carnival and magnificent tableaux showcasing the traditions and culture of the region. However, the annual Rath Yatra which is a time-honoured tradition will still be held with the same fervour and pomp and show with which it has always been held.

Each year, Lord Raghunath's idol is placed on a beautifully-decorated chariot and then there is a grand procession in which the chariot is taken on a yatra throughout Kullu town amid the mandatory presence of the erstwhile Kullu royal family. Also visitors will get an opportunity to witness the spiritual significance of lalhri, a traditional dance that's very popular.

A glimpse from the Kullu Dussehra

As per the programme, the Rath Yatra that is a gathering of nearly 300 deities from across the Valley of Gods, will be carried out on the first day i.e. October 24.

This will be followed by a cultural parade on October 25, the lalhri dance on October 29 and the Kullu Carnival with tableaux exhibiting the traditions and culture of the region, on October 30.

The week-long festivities in Kullu, which attract an estimated four to five lakh tourists and many researchers from across the globe, are also a culinary adventure. Visitors will be able to savour the rich repast of local delicacies reflecting unique Himalayan culinary traditions and flavours.

Besides, local handicrafts and artifacts like handcrafted blankets, intricate pattu-pattis, exquisite wooden crafts, shingli-mingli, kadu, patish, and more, will showcase the cultural heritage of the region.

Local legislator Sunder Singh Thakur, who is the chairman of the International Kullu Dussehra Festival Organising Committee, said that the festival is a major attraction for which cultural troupes from over 20 countries have been invited.

Soaking in the Bengali flavour when out of Bengal

...by celebrating Pujo, of course! ROMAL LAISRAM lists the best pandal experiences across Bengaluru, Chennai, Delhi and Hyderabad that one ought to visit this festive season, during one of your travels...

While Kolkata is absolutely abuzz right now with pandals outdoing each other – that come alive this Pujo season – many other Indian cities aren't too far behind, with each of their own unique twists.

BENGALURU

The city is now home to over 13 lakh Bengalis and therefore the number of pandals have substantially increased over the years. With whole localities being named after Bengali litterateurs including Rabindranath Tagore — RT Nagar, it's no surprise that Pujo bhogs and pandal hopping are now very popular seasonal pastimes in the city. Here are the five most popular pandals that you can visit during the five-day festivities:

- Bengalee Association, Ulsoor
- Sarathi Socio-Cultural Trust, Koramangala
- Socio Cultural Association, Indiranagar
- Barsha Bengali Association, Haralur
- Sanskritik Bengali Association Bangalore, Jaya Prakash Nagar

CHENNAI

Madras has never been known as a centre for Bengalis and the population is still estimated to be below a lakh. This, however, does not mean the city shies away from celebrating the arrival of Uma every single year. The local Bangla-speaking population, however, draw a close connection to Tamil Nadu, thanks to the strong ties established many years ago by Swami Vivekananda, who was originally from Kolkata. Chennai celebrates the Devi in these five prominent pandals:

- The Bengal Association, T Nagar
- Dakshini Society, Anna Nagar
- Dakshin Chennai Prabasi Cultural Association, Navalur
- South Madras Cultural Association, Thiruvanmiyur
- Madras Kali Bari, West Mambalam

DELHI

If the capital city's Bengali population could secede Chittaranjan Park as a separate city in itself, they would! Jokes apart, the population of Bengalis in Delhi is easily over 20 lakh and those that cannot go back home to West Bengal for Pujo, make the most of the city's offerings and revel in dhaker baddi and dhunuchi naach to their heart's content. Pandal hopping has become a reality in Delhi over the last few decades and one can even say that it is the best experience after Kolkata, though we must admit, it's no match. If in Delhi, here's where you need to head for some pure Pujo indulgences.

- Chittaranjan Park Kalibari
- Mela Ground, CR Park
- Kashmiri Gate, Old Delhi
- Kali Bari, Mayur Vihar
- Matri Mandir Samity, Safdarjung Enclave

HYDERABAD

The Nizam's city has seen an influx of Bengalis over the last few years and the current estimates are close to five lakh proud probashis. With a close cultural connection owing to Sarojini Naidu (née Chattopadhyay) and how she called this city her second home, it isn't surprising that Hyderabad also joins in the yearly festivities with aplomb and fervour. The five pandals below are must-visits if you love all things 'bong.'

- Bangiya Sanskritik Sangha, Secunderabad
- Hyderabad Kalibari, Sainikpuri
- Hyderabad Bangalee Samity, Himayath Nagar
- Utsab Cultural Association, Gachibowli
- Prabashi Socio Cultural Association, Nizampet

Protesting for pride, gathering hope, the LGBTQIA+ community awaited the verdict by the Supreme Court on Tuesday. As it refused to give marriage equality rights to the community, the fight continues. CE captures the emotions

KNOTTED UP

(Compiled by Archita Raghu, Dese Gowda, Krishna PS, Paramita Ghosh)

EXPRESS ILLUSTRATION

SENTHIL,
PROGRAMME DIRECTOR AT QUEER CHENNAI CHRONICLES

Pride has been a riot and achieving rights has never been easy. Decriminalisation itself took almost 18 years. The Delhi High Court upheld the Naz Foundation (case) and said the queer folks are decriminalised. That went to the Supreme Court and was criminalised again by Justice Singhvi. It took another Navtej case to decriminalise again, in 2018. When Justice Chandrachud started the verdict, I was expecting something positive, then I realised these are directions and not a judgement or an order given to the government. It was a bit disheartening. At this point of time, I don't trust the Parliament at all. Looking at the comments coming from representatives and MPs, they have consistently been homophobic or queerphobic. There should be some formulation or committee formed with queer folks who have worked with queer community from the grassroot level. My heart goes out for the entire queer community of the country but we have to gather together for the major fights.

PRIYANK SUKANAND, SPECIAL EDUCATOR AND CO-FOUNDER OF QUEER COLLECTIVE INDIA

I was initially confused with the verdict. It felt like the judges intentionally wanted to begin with some positive news and end with opposing most, and almost all of the expected provisions. The end of the verdict felt like an empty announcement filled with lots of empathy and support but no actual change. Meanwhile, the union government this last decade has shown us one thing, it is the zero inclusion, fascism, and endorsement of widespread hate. The fight for our rights doesn't end here. The Section 377 battle took 18 years. This one might take more. We will not be silenced. We will not back down.

ADITYA TIWARI, AUTHOR, OVER THE RAINBOW: INDIA'S QUEER HEROES

It's appalling that even in 2023 we have to fight for our fundamental rights. Today, I ask you: Why do we not have the same rights as our heterosexual counterparts? I feel that the decision will be a double-edged sword because of how people perceive LGBTQ+ people in Indian society. Many people argue that we're just a handful of people, but let me tell you these are the same 'handful of people' who have moved the courts time and time again and it is because of our resistance that India scrapped 377. But despite that, many people continue to live in the shadows in small towns of India like Jabalpur, or Raipur, Rampur or Bilaspur due to fear of humiliation and rejection. There's so much hatred both online and offline and that needs to go away. Being queer in India remains to be a political proclamation.

In my opinion, marriage equality will definitely change many lives and fill young people like me with hope for a better future. It will be a step closer towards an equal India, a diverse India – that I feel is the future.

MX GADHA,
QUEER HEALTH RESEARCHER

It's disheartening to read how the government has tried to discredit us – calling us urban elites and accusing queerness of being an imported culture. The queer community is as diverse as it gets, and we all have our own ideas and lifestyles. Be that as it may, we have survived and existed within the Indian psyche, and are here to stay. Marriage for cis heteronormal citizens has been safeguarded as a normalised reality. After the NALSA judgment recognising transgenders and the decriminalisation of consensual homosexual activities among adults, marriage equality should have been the logical next step.

Unfortunately, that's not the case. It's been a long fight, and doesn't look like it's going to end any time soon. We are back to square one. But, we don't have the privilege to admit defeat, as future is at stake.

SYAMA S PRABHU,
SECRETARY, QUEERYTHM NGO

We know the government's view, which maintains that a family unit is made of 'biological man' as husband and 'biological woman' as wife. This judgment will not help transpeople in heterosexual relationships to register their marriage. After Manu (a transman) and I (a transwoman) got married, we moved the HC to register our marriage, the case is still on. The issue is transpeople's gender is specified in IDs as 'transgender', not as a transwoman, transman, or any other 16 gender identities. On the document, it is considered a transgender marrying a transgender – even though we are not the same sex. There are changes needed to register our marriage, and the judgment hasn't mentioned that part.

DEEPA VASUDEVAN,
FOUNDER OF SAHAYATRIKA NGO, A PETITIONER

The verdict was deeply disappointing. Many of us believed that the SC would continue to uphold and expand the community's rights based on our right to equality. Despite the progressive statements made by CJI D Y Chandrachud and Justice Sanjay Kishan Kaul, the verdict doesn't appear to give any new recognition of rights. It is going to be a long journey ahead. We will have to see whether the conclusion of the five-member bench that marriage equality cannot be addressed constitutionally gets overturned by future Supreme Court rulings, or whether we could ever obtain recognition for civil unions and same sex marriage through the popular morality of legislative bodies. However, the positive takeaway is the recognition among all the judges that LGBTQIA+ people deserve protection from coercion and violence. We hope to effectively use the observations in our advocacy for the community.

SUKANTH, IT PROFESSIONAL

The verdict was disappointing. We are in 2023 and if this is still debatable then we are failing as a constituency to even respect fundamental human rights. I wasn't expecting a legalisation but at least something on the lines of civil unions would've been a huge win for the community. Decriminalisation of homosexuality in India was a significant milestone, but achieving marriage equality and comprehensive protection of LGBTQ+ rights may take time and continued effort. The legal system is just one component of a broader societal and cultural context. Progress may involve legal reforms, public awareness, and shifts in societal attitudes.

Tennis elbow, a condition which affects a muscle attachment at the elbow is common among many, including celebrated cricketer Sachin Tendulkar

Sachin Tendulkar

DR SAI KRISHNA B NAIDU

WHAT is tennis elbow?
It is a condition which affects a muscle attachment at the elbow.

Which muscle is commonly affected?
It affects the extensor carpi radialis brevis.

What are the common symptoms of tennis elbow?
Usually, patients present with pain, and some people complain of radiation of similar pain to the shoulder and also after rest. Sometimes this can be confused for symptoms arising from the shoulder too. Adequate clinical examination by your doctor will help in diagnosing accurately. Some patient also complains of weak grip strength.

Whom does it commonly affect?
As the name suggests, it is common in people who play a lot of backend in tennis and badminton. This is very common in India who do a lot of repetitive movements, such as kneading flour and other activities. This can be prevented by doing such repetitive actions.

Can I prevent tennis elbow?
Yes, it can be prevented. If you play carefully while playing tennis or badminton. Certain repetitive moments, which increase the friction and tear at muscle insertion, need to be avoided.

How is it treated?
The main line treatment for tennis elbow is exercise. Physiotherapy, such as IFT and ultrasound can also help in relieving the pain. However, exercise only increases the stretching of this ECRB muscle at its insertion point. If the first step fails, an injection of PRP (platelet-rich plasma) at the point of ECRB insertion is recommended. There are various elbow bands with magnetic therapy, which also help in relieving the pain. Extensive research has shown that exercise alone can help. If both the above modalities fail, then your doctor may suggest that you undergo a small surgical procedure to remove the dead and necrotic tissue at the muscle insertion.

Does diet have any impact on tennis elbow?
No. Diet does not have any impact, but repetitive movements and not adequately resting without exercise will worsen the situation. A large study done in the western population, showed some correlation between vitamin D deficiency and tennis elbow. Hence, checking vitamin D levels would be appropriate.

Do any Ayurvedic medications help with tennis elbow?
There is some evidence of turmeric ingredient helping in relieve the inflammation.

How fine's your spine?

With World Spine Day having been marked on Oct 16, let's look at different kinds of back pains, treatments and prevention methods

DR THARUN KRISHNA

EVERY year, Oct 16 is celebrated as World Spine Day. The burden of back pain is staggering — a billion people are estimated to suffer from some kind of spinal pain and disability globally. That is why the theme for World Spine Day this year was 'Move Your Spine', as lack of physical activity is the main driver of back pain.

The spine is a column of 33 vertebral bones, with about 120 muscles attached to it, it gives our body a frame of support and houses the spinal cord within. Spinal nerves that direct and control our mobility emanate from the spine. Spinal pain can occur at any of the five regions — cervical (neck), thoracic (upper back), lumbar (lower back), sacrum, and coccyx (tailbone). Neck and lower-back pain are more common due to the higher mobility and flexibility of these regions, leading to more strain injuries to muscles, ligaments, and discs.

As such, pain and disability can cause muscle spasms, disc herniations, arthritis of facet joints, and pinched nerves. For many, improper posture is the reason behind back pain. Avoiding sitting for prolonged periods can ease the pain. High-heeled footwear needs to be cast out. Addiction to hand-held mobile phones and electronic devices can put significant strain on the neck, leading to an overuse pain syndrome called 'text neck'.

Bulges of intervertebral discs can occur following lifting weights, pulling or pushing heavy objects, and sports injuries. This causes sudden back pain and numbness that may extend to the legs. These are often encountered in young adults.

The elderly are more prone to pain from the narrowing of the spinal canal and its apertures due to age-related degenerative changes. Here, pain comes after walking for a short while. Back pain at night or rest needs to be assessed to rule out spinal infections like tuberculosis and cancers.

Calcium deficiency can cause fractures in the spine in post-menopausal women due to the weakening of bones.

Any significant spinal pain lasting more than a few days needs to be discussed with a physician and appropriately investigated with X-rays, MRI, CT scans, PET scans and DEXA scans. Once a diagnosis is established, most people may just require only a course of medication. Some may require structured and short-course physiotherapy.

More severe pain may need surgical interventions like disc removal or fusion surgeries through a keyhole with an operative microscope or endoscope and spinal navigation.

Spinal pain can be prevented by adhering to simple rules — be active, exercise regularly, adopt good posture, have a healthy diet, stop tobacco usage, and take care or seek help while lifting weights. For a happier life, 'back care' should not be relegated to a back seat!

Vasishta Simha to collaborate with Brahma for a crime thriller

CE FEATURES

BRAHMANANDA Reddy (Brahma), a professor with 26 years of experience in teaching films, has transitioned to become a filmmaker. He is known for helming Siddi Seere, a film that gained recognition at the New York and Tokyo Film Festivals. As he gears to release his next, Sorry Karma Returns, starring Ragini Dwivedi, which is said to be the first motion picture in Kannada cinema, meanwhile, Brahma is set to collaborate with Vasishta Simha, and the announcement coincides with Vasishta's birthday today.

Director Brahma shares more details about his upcoming project and describes it as a crime thriller. "What makes this untitled film unique is its non-linear storytelling style, a less explored approach in Indian cinema," says Brahma, who intends to portray the protagonist in dual shades.

This film will be bankrolled by Kalasrushti Productions and will be shot in Bengaluru and Kodagu. Afzal, who is playing a role, will also be doubling up as an executive producer. The untitled project, has cinematography by Rajeev Ganeshan and music by Raghavan Kartik. The shooting is scheduled to commence in November. Vasishta Simha's line-up includes Loveli and a Telugu project, both in different stages of production.

'GHOST IS COMPLETELY SRINI'S VISION'

...says the 126-film-old actor, Shivarajkumar, who talks about his upcoming heist thriller, the de-ageing process in the film, the post-Jailer surge in popularity and more.

A SHARADHAA

SHIVARAJKUMAR is widely celebrated for his expressive eyes by this generation's audience, especially after his cameo in Jailer. However, Shivanna shares this feature of him is something his father Dr Rajkumar observed a long ago and even shared it with his mother, Parvathamma Rajkumar. "Even my father had a lot of depth in his eyes, so receiving a compliment from him, at that time, meant a lot. After that, Upendra mentioned during the time of Om that my eyes are powerful, and it caught his attention. I never thought about it until someone else pointed it out, but I never let it leave my head. However audience's reaction to my 7-8-minute cameo surprised me. That's the magic of screen presence," says Shivanna.

With Ghost, directed by Srini, and bankrolled by Sandesh Productions releasing today, he believes the reaction of the audience will be tenfold for his screen presence.

Srini's heist thriller carries a line that goes, "When violence dies, Big Daddy is born." When asked about how this onscreen personality contributes as a mass hero to the film's impact, Shivanna explains, "We've heard actors being called superheroes or romantic heroes, but 'Big Daddy' truly justifies the character. 'Daddy' is a powerful name, and it adds an emotional touch to the character." he mentions.

Ghost is invisible and frightening. "My character too has a stealthy presence and instils fear in his enemies. This Ghost clearly has a unique identity."

Ghost is Shivanna's 126th film, and it's the first time he is part of a thriller without songs and a heroine. What motivated Shivanna to take on this unique project? "I have recently adapted to this trend. Films like Bhajarangi and Vedha presented me in different characterizations, even though they had songs. Lately, I've been eager to experiment with various subjects. In the case of Ghost, there is an element of love, but that doesn't necessarily require a heroine to convey it, and it can take any form," says Shivanna, as he calls Srini a visionary director who has meticulously designed the entire film. "Even the fight sequences have been put together with great effort, there is an element of grace to the action."

With dialogues penned by Prasanna VM catching the attention of the fans on one side, the other aspect that stands out in Ghost is the de-aged look of Shivanna. "The character demanded this, and it's a new concept not only for me but for the industry. With deaging, process, the way I talk, my body language and my voice had to change. I couldn't play my current age; it was different."

Apart from the technology-driven elements, the film is also packed with deep emotions, especially for family audiences."Our focus is on delivering a complete and engaging experience."

With the massive ensemble cast in Ghost, including actors from different film industries, Shivarajkumar states, "I recommended Jayaram because he's a fantastic actor with a great sense of comedy. He transforms alongside his co-stars. It's a treat to watch Jayaram, and acting with him is another advantage. The same goes for Anupam Kher, who has excelled in various roles and is another actor who captivates the audience with his eyes and brilliance."

Ghost is gaining immense attention across languages, after Shivarajkumar's cameo appearance in Jailer. When asked about the attention from other language audiences, he says, "I don't deny the impact of my role in Jailer; it has created a huge buzz for Ghost in the south. My dubbed films perform well in Hindi, including Bhajarangi 1 & 2, Mufti, Tagaru, and many others released on OTT. Many people in the North recognize me. People in Chennai knew me as Rajkumar's son till yesterday, but my role in Jailer brought me individual attention and a special place in their hearts, and I should utilize it properly. It has certainly boosted Ghost across multiple languages."

Shivarajkumar, who entered the multilingual star arena a bit late, addresses the challenge of balancing his identity as a hero, and with character roles "My role in Jailer was just a cameo but I have an extensive role in Dhanush's Captain Miller. I have offers to do more straight films from top producers and directors in Tamil, including Prabhu Solomon, Thenappan, (Kamal Haasan's manager), Trident Ravi, Sathya Jyothi Films, and many others. I will be doing a couple of Tamil films, which will be multilingual and made in Kannada too," he signs off.

'LEO IS 100% MY FILM'

SUDHIR SRINIVASAN

LOKESH grew up admiring the Western action films of the late 80s and early 90s. In this conversation, the inevitable words of admiration for these films came at one point. "You remember how in Die Hard, John McClane is thought dead, but then someone sees the bad guy going crazy, and John's wife remarks that he is alive, and when asked how she knows, she replies, 'Only John can drive a person this crazy!'" Lokesh said, savouring the moment yet again. "It's little moments like these I'm trying to recreate in our cinema." It's hard not to immediately think of that line in Lokesh's Kaithi when the protagonist goes, "You know that I've been in prison for ten years, but what you don't know is what I was doing before I got jailed."

Young Lokesh Kanagaraj saw these action films again and again on television. "I only knew these heroes then. Sylvester Stallone, Bruce Willis, Arnold Schwarzenegger... It was only later that I began watching films for directors like Martin Scorsese." And yet, he remembered the enjoyment that early exposure to these Hollywood action films gave him. "I'm trying my best to do something like that here," he said. Lokesh's films, including his new film, Leo, all firmly belong in the action territory. While the emphasis is on realistic action, the violence isn't out to give you sleepless nights; it's all meant to entertain you and take your mind off everything else. "I don't even like to call it violence; action is a better word." It helps that the much sought-after action choreographer duo, Anbariv, are his close friends. "They know me from before I made my debut. They gave me money for sustenance when I was struggling; they gave me a house to sleep in. I know that for them, I'm not just another filmmaker they are working with."

Right now, though, all eyes are on Leo, and whether or not, it belongs in what has come to be dubbed as the Lokesh Cinematic Universe (comprising Kaithi and Vikram so far). The trailer of Leo betrays some visual likeness to those two films, and while Lokesh, understandably, preferred to retain the suspense about Leo, he spoke freely about reimagining actor Vijay in a new light. "When we did Master, I told everyone that the film was half-mine and half-his. There was an introduction song, a mass hero entry moment... you know how it was. Leo, however, is 100% my film, and this was as we planned after Master." Lokesh was thrilled to see Vijay climb into the world of Leo and channel the performer within him. "He can deliver more than you expect of him. There's an eight-minute monologue scene in Leo, and I'd earmarked an entire day to shoot it. Vijay anna came at 11 and nailed it with his first take, and by 11:30, we were done and not sure what to do next. I said it was time to pack up, amazed at how quickly he aced the difficult scene."

Lokesh's filmography has shown his disinterest in perfectly good protagonists, and we can expect this to continue in Leo as well. "Flawless protagonists don't allow you writing flexibility; they come with rigid rules that you cannot break in the narrative," Lokesh said. "Vijay na completely trusted in my vision; if he had wanted to change even a single aspect of Leo Das' characterisation, this film might not have been possible. If Kamal sir didn't trust me, this whole cinematic universe might not have existed." I asked how this trust came to be. After all, it's an industry full of filmmakers often lamenting the lack of flexibility from stars. "I guess I'm a good narrator," he replied and then warmed up for a more revelatory answer. "I think a lot also hinges on whether they trust you to execute your vision. From my experience, it's only when actors are unsure about your ability as a filmmaker that they begin to intervene. If you keep your promises, you usually get the freedom you need."

While the drug problem is the overarching evil in LCU, Lokesh doesn't show interest in biting into other real problems like political issues or caste oppression, for instance. "Half-knowledge is a dangerous thing," said Lokesh. "When you're not completely informed, it's better to be completely silent. I know a filmmaker admitting ignorance is not desirable, but that's really the truth. I have sacrificed everything to make the kind of films I grew up watching on television—and that's kept me away from being informed about many other issues around me." The honesty is unnerving and frankly, refreshing. Where Lokesh admits to having become better is in his writing of romance—which has come to be thought of as an Achilles heel for him. "I think I have learned a bit more in that area now," said Lokesh, laughing. "At least a couple of love scenes in Leo have come out really well, I think." But Leo, despite the proclaimed improvements in the romance department, is, at its heart, an action film, but one extremely rooted in our ethos. "We can adapt ideas and tropes, but our emotions are still fundamental to our cinematic experience," he clarified. So, while he might be influenced by Tarantino's focus on food in cinema and channel this quality in his universe (the biriyani-making around Vikram interval, for instance), Lokesh is careful to ensure that familial motivations are well-established. "That's because the scariest aspect of drugs is the possibility that someone in the family could fall prey," he said, and turned to, where else, but late 80s Hollywood for a reference. "Even in films like Die Hard and Predator, you will see that all the action is only to enable familial togetherness."

This is a fascinating departure from many prodigious filmmakers who take refuge in the Fellinis and the Tarkovskis or even the Kubricks and the Scorseses—this unabashed love Lokesh has for the crowd-pleasing action films from Hollywood. While it is all yielding great returns, he isn't as charmed by cold box-office numbers. Similarly, while his LCU may be a derivative of MCU, that didn't stop him from declaring that he, in fact, preferred DC over Marvel. "I enjoy the darkness of DC and my favourite character is Batman. Christopher Nolan's trilogy is where it began for me," he shared, and suddenly, that final shot of Vikram gazing at his granddaughter from a distance felt very much like a homage to that end scene in The Dark Knight Rises. All these influences, all these stars, and not a single misstep yet in his career. You keep cooking, Lokesh.
